Lambert plunders maiden ton Windies toy with England

PORT-OF SPAIN, Apr 10: Clayton Lambert and Brian Lara produced some superb batting as the West Indies trounced England by 57 runs in the fifth and final limited-over international here on Wednesday, reports AFP.

The West Indies took the series 4-1. Lambert scored a fiery maiden century and Lara made 93 as the West Indies romped to 302 for five in their 50 overs and then dismissed the tourists for 245.

England skipper Adam Hoolioake was smashed for 33 runs from just two overs of his medium pace and was then dismissed for two in a nightmarish personal performance. Lambert and Lara shared a 185-run stand in 30 overs for the third wicket.

The pair came together in the 14th over with West Indies on 67 for two and for an hour England maintained control. But from 120 for two after 30 overs the two West Indies batsmen took over — savaging the England bowling and leaving Hoolioake clearly puzzled as to where to put his fielders.

Boundaries flowed, particularly when the skipper introduced himself into the attack. The captain's first over cost 19 runs, but he stubbornly kept himself on. The next cost 14 and the West Indies were flying.

Lambert's second 50 took only 38 balls and he celebrated by swinging Mark Elham for a huge six over long on. Lara, after a slow start, was equally irresistible.

Carl Hooper also played some magnificent strokes at the end of the innings to reach 35 not out from just 20 balls and make sure the West Indies got past 300. England, after plunging to 115 for five in reply were allowed to reach 245 mainly because skipper Lara gave everybody except wicketkeeper Ridley Jacobs and Philo Wallace a bowl.

This was the last match of England's humiliating tour of the Caribbean and the tourists after promising much returns home empty handed as they had been doing for the past 30 years. Only Nick Knight and Mark Ramprakash, with 65 and 51 respectively, batted with anything like international class for England.

Lambert was adjudged player-of-the-match. Veteran fast bowler Curtly Ambrose who bagged 30 wickets in the Test series took the player-of-the-series award.

Friendly cricket

The Jatiya Press Club (JPC) will play a friendly cricket match against Medcos Cricket Club of Calcutta at the Bangabandhu National Stadium here on April 12, reports BSS.

JPC team: Mohammad Qamruzzaman (captain), Mujtaba Danish, Partha Tanvir Naved, Syed Mahun, Ajay Barua, Saitur Rahman Shamim, Masud Ahmed Rumi, Al Musabbir Sadi Pommel, Raihan Al Mughni, Badal Mostafiz, Apu, Sajjad Hossain Sabuj, Dodul, Saifur Rahman, Sadrul.

Convenor of JPC sports sub-committee Bakhtiar Rana and Kamalur Rahman have been made manager and assistant manager respectively of the team.

The JPC cricketers have been requested to attend the net practice at the national stadium at 3 pm today.

Susanthika suspended

COLOMBO, Apr 10: Asia's fastest woman, Susanthika Jayasinghe, was suspended by Sri Lanka athletic officials Friday after testing positive for drug use, an official said, reports AP.

Jayasinghe, who won the 200-metre silver medal at last year's World Championships, was temporarily suspended by Amateur Athletic Association of Sri Lanka after failing a second drug test in one week.

"She has been suspended pending an official inquiry by the association at which she can produce any further evidence. We will then determine what action should be taken," said Rohan Amarasinghe, the association's secretary.

The suspension would be effective from March 8, the date of the first test, said Amarasinghe in a telephone interview. The inquiry would be completed within one week.

Jayasinghe, 23, has denied using drugs to enhance her performance.

The second test was conducted by the International Amateur Athletic Federation, after the athlete protested results of the test showing Nandrolone, a banned steroid, in her urine. The local association backed her demand for another test.

FRANCE '98 SIDELINES

UNDATED, Apr 10 (AP): The two halves of South Africa's World Cup team are being melded into one.

Veterans such as midfielder Doctor Khumalo, striker Mark Williams and goalkeeper Andre Arendse were included in two training squads named Thursday.

New coach Philippe Troussier is holding separate training camps for players based in South Africa and those living abroad. After the camps, which will take place next week, a preliminary World Cup squad will be chosen.

Khumalo, Williams and Arendse all were dropped from the national team when interim coach Jomo Sono took over in December following the resignation of Clive Barker. Sono fielded a younger, less-experienced side in several losing exhibition matches and the African Nations' Cup tournament, in which South Africa finished second.

ROYAL PLAN

Prince Philip, husband of Queen Elizabeth II, will attend the opening game of the World Cup, Buckingham Palace said Thursday.

A palace spokesman said it was too early to know what other games members of the royal family would attend. The opener June 10 in the Stade de France in Paris pits Scotland against World Cup champions Brazil.

Scotland, which has both qualified for the month-long tournament. England open June 15 against Tunisia in Marseille.

FRENCH INCENTIVE

The French Sports Ministry will have four trucks equipped with screens 24 metres (yards) to 34 metres (yards) wide that will rove around France telecasting the World Cup's 64 matches in selected neighbourhoods free of charge.

About 100 French cities have applied to have one of the trucks telecast one of the games in a poor neighbourhood in their area, said Marie-George Buffet, the French Sports Minister.

Lisa shocks Monica

AMELIA ISLAND, Florida, Apr 10: Lisa Raymond posted her biggest victory of the year, defeating third-seeded Monica Seles, 7-6 (10-8), 6-4 Thursday in the third round of the Bausch and Lomb Championships, reports AP.

The 10th-seeded Raymond was urged on by a cheering crowd as she battled back from an 0-5 deficit in the first set, saving set point several times before finally forcing the tiebreaker.

Raymond, ranked 19th in the world, and Seles, who is ranked No. 7, battled evenly in the tiebreaker until Raymond sent a blistering backhand past fellow American Seles to capture the set.

OPPORTUNITY KNOCKS HASSELBANK

Maybe it's time for Leeds forward Jimmy Hasselbank to get a shot with the Netherlands.

"I've got enough players away on international duty. I don't need any more," joked Leeds coach George Graham. "I hope there's no interest from Holland, I would be quite happy about that."

Hasselbank scored twice in Leeds 3-1 win Wednesday over Chelsea and has 19 this season. But he has the bad fortune of standing behind forwards like Patrick Kluijver, Dennis Bergkamp and Pierre van Hooijdonk on the Dutch side.

Leeds teammate David Wetherall said the Surinamborn Hasselbank deserves a spot.

"He has got to be worth a place in the Holland squad the way he is playing," Wetherall said. "He is banging in goals every game. It seems he has come on a ton this year and he is looking great."

European soccer preview

PARIS, Apr 10: Italian champions Juventus enter the final stage of their Serie A season this weekend with coach Marcello Lippi calling on them to give everything they have while their Spanish counterparts Real Madrid desperately seek to consolidate their second place behind Barcelona, reports AFP.

In Germany Bayern Munich host lowly city rivals 1860 Munich with the chance of cutting leaders Kaiserslautern's lead to just one point while in France the league takes a rest as the French Cup enters the semi-final stage.

Juventus have an easy tie on paper against a Piacenza side struggling, as ever, to beat relegation at the end of the season.

Boyyed up by last Sunday's 1-0 victory over Lazio which almost certainly made the Serie A title a two-hour race with Inter Milan, Juventus will be at full strength for the game in Turin.

Lippi said: "We can only gauge the importance of beating Lazio after tomorrow's game. Everyone says the title is decided in the head-to-head games among the top clubs, but I think it's in the supposedly easy matches."

"We nearly jeopardised our whole season by drawing with Napoli. Lazio did the same by drawing with Piacenza and Inter by losing at home to Bari and Bologna. Beating Lazio will only count for a lot if we also beat Piacenza."

Alessandro Del Piero and Filippo "Super Pippo" Inzaghi will lead the attack, hoping to add to their 53-goal total this season, although there may also be room for Uruguayan Marcelo Zalayeta.

Trying to stop them will be the oldest man in the Serie A, Piacenza defender Pietro Vierchow, who turned 39 this week and who was well into his second season as a professional on the day Zalayeta was born.

In Spain Real Madrid's vain hopes of overhauling Barcelona in the championship all but disappeared on Tuesday when the Catalan side used their game in hand to beat Real Betis 2-0 and move 11 points clear of last season's champions.

Real must now hope to qualify for next season's Champions League by either winning this season's European Cup or retaining their second place in the league.

They face a difficult trip to fifth placed Celta Vigo on Saturday and look likely to be without the injured duo of Yugoslav striker Predrag Mijatovic and young Spanish star Fernando Morientes — Croat Davor Suker and Emilio Amavisca will fill in.

Celta, who have been the surprise package of the title race this season, will be without their influential Brazilian World Cup winning midfielder star Mazinho, who scored a brilliant goal in his side's 3-1 win over Barcelona a fortnight ago.

Barcelona, who have come back from a huge disappointing Champions League campaign to be within two or three games of sealing the title, travel to modest Merida.

Bayern Munich have everything to play for after Kaiserslautern dropped another two points against Borussia Dortmund on Thursday evening.

Five games are left to play and Kaiserslautern's lead has melted to four points after falling to win their last seven matches — although the leaders will have what could prove to be a vital game in hand after the Munich derby.

All of Munich is buzzing although 1860 lost beat Bayern 21 years ago, even so, these Bavarian derbies are always passionate affairs and a highlight of Munich's football calendar.

"The city is split down the middle between red and blue. I hardly know anyone who doesn't care about this game," Bayern's Mehmet Schol said.

As Bayern gun for the title 1860, however, will be happy if they can simply scrape through for another season of football in Germany's top division.

"It doesn't have to be a good game, just a win," Bayern manager Uli Hoeness said.

"We want the title and plan to cause Kaiserslautern a lot of trouble," he added.

Despite their outward confidence Bayern will be without four key players, Thomas Helmer, Mario Basler, Brazilian striker Giovanni Elber and Alexander Zickler because of injury.

The French Cup semifinals are split between Saturday and Sunday as first double chasing Lens host UEFA Cup hopefuls Lyon and Paris Saint Germain, who captured the League Cup last Saturday, host last year's beaten finalists Guingamp.

The Play

Three NT by East with a minimum hand is no doubt ambitious when partner showed a maximum of 9 high card points. In the absence of any indication of North's holding, South led 10 of Diamond (Top of nothing). North played low, and East won the trick with K. East played the Q of Clubs, South played low. On winning the Q, East continued with the 9 of Clubs which was ducked in dummy. East now played the K of Hearts which was ducked by North. East continued with the Q, and South played in the ascending order to give count to the North who now took the Q with the Ace as he knew that East did not have any more Heart. North cashed the Ace of Diamond and exited with the third Diamond. East after cashing 3 Diamond tricks played a small Spade, South played 9, West K and North the Ace. North returned a small Spade, East played low, South won with the Q and returned his last Spade. North took the J and surrendered his last Spade. East made 1 Spade, 1 Heart, 4 Diamond and 2 Club tricks - one short for the game. Note that if North failed to observe carefully the play of Hearts by South and if he ducked the Q of Hearts, East would have got his 9th tricks.
