Pakistan's collapse today was sparked by South Africa's ace fielder Jonty Rhodes who ran out Mohammad Wasim with a direct hit from backward point in the ninth over. Four balls later Ijaz Ahmed was caught at second slip off Roger Telemachus for nought.

Opener Saeed Anwar made top score of 30. His innings included three sixes. Anwar hit two sixes in one over from Allan Donald including one which was caught by Klusener at fine-leg although the fielder stepped over the boundary in taking the catch. Klusener then had Anwar caught behind with his first delivery of the match. Inzamam-ul Haq made 21 and was looking in good form before he was given out caught behind off South African captain Hansie Cronje. He stood in disbelief after the decision by umpire Cyril Mitchley.

Inzamam's show of dissent led him to be called to appear before match referee John Reid after the match.

Inzamam's dismissal started a flurry of five wickets which fell for nine runs in 5.1 overs before Wagar Younis and Abdul Razzak staged a minor recovery with a ninth-wicket stand of 20. · It was the third successive match in which South Africa's opponents had been dismissed inside the scheduled 50 overs. Pakistan were bowled out for 145 at Centurion on Friday and Sri Lanka tumbled to 105 all out in Bloemfontein Sunday. Wasim Akram, the most successful bowler in the series bowled his allocation of ten overs unchanged. He had Rindel caught behind for 20 to finish the series with 15 wickets in seven matches. The win was South Africa's 12th in succession against Pakistan it completed a season in which they won 18 out of 22 limited-over matches to retain their ranking as the most successful one-day team in the world.
