BCU organises silent procession condemning terrorism in DU

By DU Correspondent
Bangladesh Chhatra Union (BCU) yesterday organised a silent procession at the Dhaka University where demonstrators carried books wrapped in black clothes in a symbolic protest against continued terrorism threatening the academic life of the students.

The BCU activists held a rally in front of the Madhu's canteen of the university. The rally was addressed among others by BCU president Hassan Hafizur Rahman Shohel. DU unit president Sharifuzzaman Sharif and DU unit general secretary Kollan Kollol.

The leaders at the rally urged the authorities concerned to drive out the terrorists from the campus for ensuring peaceful academic atmosphere.

The BCU leaders also urged the university authorities and the police administration to play a neutral role in dealing with the terrorists.

Bangladesh Chhatra League vigorously protested the Prime Minister's proposal to ban student politics.

BRAC founder receives Humanitarian Award '98

Fazle Hasan Abed, Founder and Executive Director of BRAC received "Humanitarian Award '98" at a ceremony in Washington on Monday.

The award was given by InterAction in recognition of his "steadfast commitment to the poor in Bangladesh and worldwide, exemplified by the successes of BRAC," says a press release.

InterAction is a coalition of more than 150 US based organizations working in international development, relief and refugee assistance throughout the world. Representatives from the United Nations, World Bank, USAID, State Department and other institutions from a number of countries attended the function. Referring to Abed as a "model and inspiration for all," Ms Khathrine Wolfort, Chairperson of InterAction spoke of the innovative approaches in various programmes of BRAC.
