BCF protests PM's 'shoot on sight' proposal

By Staff Correspondent
Bangladesh Chhatra Federation (BCF) brought out a procession and held a rally on the Dhaka University campus yesterday in protest of the 'Traffic Consciousness Week' 1998 which began yesterday, says a press release.

BCF leaders at the rally, held in front of DU Arts Faculty Building, said the proposal has unveiled the fascist character of the government.

Terming the proposal as a blow to human rights, the BCF leaders said the government is trying to hide its failure and divert people's concern by making such comments.

Traffic Week begins

By Staff Correspondent

The Traffic Department of Dhaka Metropolitan Police has taken up various programmes in observance of the 'Traffic Consciousness Week' 1998 which began yesterday, says a press release.

Different important points of the city have been decorated with banners, placards and posters on traffic rules.

Leaflet containing the traffic rules have been distributed while seven vehicles have been engaged to publicise road discipline.

The members of Girl Guides and Rover Scouts are also encouraging passers-by to abide by the traffic rules.

A number of traffic police on horse back are patrolling city thoroughfare to help maintain traffic discipline.

Meanwhile, on the first day of the week, police filed a total of 1463 cases for violating traffic rules under the Vehicle Ordinance of 1983, and realised fines worth Tk 49,050 from violators.
