SHANE WARNE bowl again." Warne, 28, has been dogged by injury for several seasons. and before the shoulder injury flared he was troubled by persistent pain in his spinning lingers. He became the greatest spin bowling wicket-taker of all time during the recent tour of India and his 313 Test wickets are the major reason for Australia's status as the leading contemporary team. Warne has played in three previous Ashes contests, taking 85 wickets at 23.57, and claimed a stunning wicket with his first ball of Australia-England clashes to remove Mike Gatting. Warne will miss Australia's participation in the Commonwealth Games in Kuala Lumpur in September and the following tour of Pakistan. "There are some things have to do to make sure it's 100 per cent right and being able to

Warne said. "I suppose at this stage Pak-istan is out because that's only four months away. "If something miraculous does come up right and I can go to Pakistan, then I'll go, but at this stage if it's not 120 per cent right I won't be playing any cricket. Warne admitted he was surprised by the extent of the damage to his shoulder.

"It's been sore for a while and I don't think that's any hidden secret," Warne said." Just to the extent of what was actually wrong, you never really know until you actually go inside and have a look. "Everybody has an opinion on what was wrong, but we weren't quite sure until we went in there. Warne said his patience would be tested during the recovery process.
