Uttara Ladies Club brought out a procession protesting rape, killing and repression on women.

Rape, killing of women Call to enact stringent laws for offenders

Speakers at a discussion called upon the government to enact stringent laws to punish the offenders of rape, oppression on women and killing, reports BSS.
They also called for proper implementation of the laws so that such kind of crimes do not take place in future.
The Uttara Ladies Club organised the discussion at its premises with club president Jahanara Islam in the chair.
Advocate Salma Ali, executive director of Bangladesh National Lawyers' Association, attended the function as the chief guest. Among others Mariam Begum, MP, Nurunnahar and Rasheda Ahsan, general secretary took part in the discussion.
Advocate Salma thanked the prime minister for taking up the women issue at the ninth SAARC Summit in Male and expressed the hope that this would bolster the activities of the different organisations, engaged in upholding the rights of women in society.
Mariam Begum, MP, said the present government was aware of the oppression meted out to the womenfolk. She said the government was going to enact strict laws to punish the offenders.
Begum Nurjahan Kader called upon the womenfolk to protest such kind of heinous crimes in society.
Jahanara Islam said that the government alone could not solve the problem unless the members of the public come forward to support the government move. She said the culprits, very few in number, were encouraged as the law seems to be liberal in this regard till now.
Earlier in the morning the members of the Uttara Ladies Club brought out a procession which paraded the main thoroughfares of the Uttara model town.

Chairman of Press Council exchanges views with editors

Chairman of Bangladesh Press Council Justice Sultan Hossain Khan exchanged views with the editors of national dailies yesterday to make the Press Council more meaningful and effective, reports BSS.
The meeting discussed in details various professional problems of the journalists and newspapers.
Speaking on the occasion, participants favoured publications of news on women and child repressions without mentioning identities of the victims.
They also discussed the amendments of some laws of the Press Council Act, 1974 and necessary amendments.
