By DU Correspondent Five left leaning student organisations yesterday brought out processions and held rallies on the Dhaka University campus defying a ban on such activities on the campus.

The Dhaka University Syndicate on Wednesday imposed the ban on holding rallies and processions for an indefinite period to avert any untoward incident on the campus.

Bangladesh Chhatra Union (BCU) brought out a procession on the campus demanding arrest of terrorists from the residential halls of the university. Later, BCU held a rally at the main entrance of the Arts Building.

Presided over by the DU unit president of BCU, Sharifuzzaman Sharif, the rally was addressed, among others, by Monzur-e-Khuda Torik, Hasan Tarik Chowdhury Sohel. The BCU leaders said the DU authorities wanted to silence the voice of protest by banning processions and rallies. They said such a move would not stop terrorism on the campus.

The leaders said peace could not be restored on the campus with known terrorists staying in different dormitories of the university.

Bangladesh Chhatra Federation, Biplobi Chhatra Moitri, Jatiya Chhatra Dal and Chhatra Oikya Forum brought out a joint procession protesting the

Bangladesh Chhatra League (BCL), the student wing of ruling Awami League and the BNPbacked Jatiyatabadi Chhatra Dal (JCD), however, did not bring out processions on the campus.

With the rehabilitation of JCD activists, an apparent normalcy returned to the campus after a fortnight-long stale-

BUET teachers urged to reach amicable settlement

By DU Correspondent Fifty-one teachers of the Dhaka University yesterday urged the BUET teachers to reach an amicable settlement through dialogue, said a press

In a statement, they urged the BUET teachers to refrain from giving the incident a political flavour for the sake of education, research and national interest.

They termed the stalemate at the BUET as unfortunate. They said it is matter of regret that the resignations of the 13 teachers of BUET were accepted going beyond the agreement reached at a meeting of the teachers with Chancellor of the university Prime Minister Sheikh Hasina.

Most of the signatories to the statement belong to the ruling party backed blue panel.

One held for raping teenage girl in N'ganj

From Our Correspondent One Abdul Ali, 45, was arrested for raping a teenage girl four days after the incident in Narayanganj yesterday.

Police arrested Abdul Ali as the victim's father Abdul Malek Akond of Namapara in Fatulla lodged a case with Fatulla thana yesterday. He was, ear-lier, barred from filing a case as local influentials assured him of justice soon after the inci-

Abdul Ali was caught red handed while raping his daughter's friend Rina Parveen, 13 at his residence at around 11:30 pm on Thursday night.

It was alleged that he fastened the mouth of the sleeping girl with cloth and took her to an adjacent room and raped her. The girl had come to visit Abdul Ali's daughter and was sleeping with her.

Students admitted with false papers

Identified at DU The Dhaka University authorities have identified two students who got themselves admitted with false documents, reports UNB. They were identified as Iqbal Hossain and Anisur Rahman. both the students of 3rd year BSS (Honours) of Political Science, who were admitted during 1993-94 session.

They are reportedly the attached students of Sir AF Rah-

The students reportedly produced fake documents with false signatures of the Provost, Chairman of the Department and Dean during their admission. The officials said both the students failed to qualify in the admission test.

The matter of their false documents were first detected by the officials of the University's administrative building.

The documents were then checked with those kept in the hall and in the department. It was accordingly informed to the Dean office.

When contacted, Dean of Social Science Faculty Prof Assaduzzaman said that he has already recommended to the higher authorities to cancel their admission and to take punitive measures against

"There is a circle involved in the illegal process to get the disqualified students admitted in various departments," he Prof Zaman said 180 such cases of false documents were detected by the authorities last year. Actions were taken against them, he said.
