'Family key to all development'

State Minister for Social Welfare, Women and Children Affairs Dr Mozammel Hossain yesterday said a family is the key to individual, society and national development, reports BSS.

"Each family is a single and independent institution," he said while inaugurating the International Family Day '98 at Bangladesh Shishu Academy.

Presided over by the Secretary of Social Welfare Ministry Mohammad Nurul Abedin, the function was addressed, among others, by Prof. Razia Matin Chowdhury, MP, eminent educationist of the country Kabir Chowdhury, Director General (DG) of Social Welfare Department Mir Shahabuddin and social worker Dr. Sharafat Ali.

Social Welfare Department and Social Welfare Ministry jointly organised the programme of the day.

Dr Mozammel said the family is the oldest and important social institution in the way of civilisation.

He said a child born in a family takes lessons about his social customs, culture, tradition, rights and responsibilities from the family itself.

Earlier, the Social Welfare Department of the ministry brought out a colourful procession and paraded different streets of the capital to mark the day.
