LONDON, May 28: Pakistan off-spinner Saqlain Mushtaq boosted Benson and Hedges Cup holders Surrey with a hattrick in their quarter final against Lancashire at The Oval on Wednesday, reports Reuters.

Saglain snapped up Lancashire's last three wickets with the second, third and fourth deliveries of the 50th and last over to complete a fine Surrey fightback in the rain-hit tie. The Pakistani's hattrick, the 11th in the 26-year history of the competition, helped to send Lancashire tumbling from 148 for one to 203 all out.

England opener Michael Atherton had played a key role in Lancashire's splendid start by scoring 93 from 109 deliver-

West Indies all-rounder Carl Hooper was Kent's top scorer with 60 as Trinidadian Phil Simmons took five for 33 in nine overs.

Simmons then helped England Test candidate Darren Maddy (93 not out) steer Leicestershire home with eight wickets and more than 12 overs to Yorkshire beat Durham by 102 runs at Headingley to repeat their victory over the same opponents in the group stage of the competition.

In the other tie, also hit by rain, Essex made 232 for nine off their 50 overs against Middlesex at Lord's with teenager Stephen Peters making his best score for the county, an unbeaten 58.

Youth cricket qualifiers

Tangail, Satkhira, Dinajpur and Faridpur won their respective matches in the Gazi Tank 18th national youth cricket qualifiers at different zonal venues yesterday, reports UNB. At Mymensingh, Tangail defeated Netrakona by 116 runs in a rain-reduced 40-over-aside match

At Jhenidah, Satkhira beat Narail by 62 runs, also in a rain-curtailed 25 over-a-side encounter.

At Nilphamari, Dinajpur overcame Rangpur by 43 runs. At Madaripur, Faridpur outplayed Bhola by 5 runs in a 20-over-a-side match.

NZ plan a tight Test fixture

WELLINGTON, May 28 (AFP): New Zealand, languishing at the bottom of world-cricket rankings, will not be able to complain of a lack of match practice next year when they face an unprecedented, and they hope not unlucky, 13 cricket Tests, a report said today.

When New Zealand Cricket chief executive Christopher Doig flew to Mumbai this week to sort out details for this year's tour by India, he also won a five-Test return visit by New Zealand for next year, The Evening Post daily said.

That would follow New Zealand's four-Test tour of Eng-

The colourful draw of Round-4 of The Daily Star World Cup Quiz '98, attended by a good number of soccer lovers, was held at the Jatiya Press Club auditorium yesterday.

Tamanna, an eight-year-old girl who lives at Chowdhurypara in the capital, won the first prize — a Sanyo refrigera-

Rezaul Islam from Uttara won the second prize - a Philips 14-inch black and white TV while Babu of Mohammadi Housing, Mohammadpur bagged the third prize a Philips weighing machine.

Prize winners of Round 4 are requested to please contact AFM Jamaluddin, Establishment Manager, with a passport size photograph between 10 am-4 pm on all working days at The Daily Star office to collect their prizes.

Besides, five entry coupons were picked for the fourth prize - 5 dozen Philips bulbs - and 25 for the fifth - a T-shirt and a

All the prizes were sponsored by Transcom Electronics Limited, the official licensee of Philips products in Bangladesh. The lucky winners were picked from thousands of entry forms by invited guests - Zakaria Pintoo, captain of the Swadheen Bangla football team, and veteran sports journalist Mohammad Quamruzzaman. Chaired by Mahfuz Anam, the Editor of The Daily Star, the draw was conducted by the Advisory Sports Editor of the newspaper Dr. Nizamuddin Ahmed and Sports Reporter Hasan Masood.

In his brief speech, Zakaria Pintoo, the former national defender who skippered Mohammedan Sporting Club for eight years in the seventies, thanked Daily Star for organising such competition which would help grow interest about football among the readers. " The Daily Star has a tradition of promoting sports and I wish them all the best. I would be happy if a few more Bangla dailies would have arranged such quiz for the interest of football amind Pintonamruzza-man, the sports editor of nowdefunct Dainik Bangla, termed the sports pages of The Daily Star as the best in the country. No doubt, The daily Star provides more information on sports than any other newspaper of the country does," said Quamruzzaman.

In his vote of thanks, Mahfuz Anam acknowledged the presence of Pintoo and Quamruzzaman and congratulated the winners of the previous rounds. He also paid his gratefulness to the Transcom Electronics for sponsoring the nineround quiz series.

Jubeda Begum (38), an associate professor of a teachers' training college and her sevenyear-old daughter Purna, the lucky winners of the first and third prizes of the third round respectively, were present on the occasion and received their prizes from the guests.

Talking to the Daily Star. Jubeda, the winner of a Whirpool gas cooker said, "Our abode turned into a festivity when we found our names on the winners' list two weeks back. It is unbelievable that we two won prizes in a same competition. She also thanked The Daily Star for organising such quiz competition.

Bermoln called on a Buenos Aires province court to rule on the case before June 10, when the World Cup kicks off in France and Argentina's 1986 World champion captain is due to travel as a television commentator.

A judge is due to decide later this week whether to renew Maradona's permission to temporarily leave the country while the case continues. Bermoln said he wanted the judge to take precautions to ensure Maradona would return from the World Cup.

WC hockey results

UTRECHT, Netherlands May 28: The Netherlands hung on for a 2-2 draw with Argentina in the final pool match of the women's hockey World Cup on Wednesday. The result meant the Dutch finished above the Argentines who must now play holders and Olympic champions Australia in Friday's semifinals, reports Reuters.

The Netherlands face their great European rivals. Germany. Germany made sure of a last four place by beating a much-improved Scotland 1-0.

The only goal was a penalty conversion by Natascha Keller in the 27th minute. The penalty was awarded when a shot by Cornelia Reiter hit the feet of Scotland's Sue Fraser.

Netherlands led Argentina 2-0 with goals by Fleur van de Kieft and Carol Thate. Kieft snapped up a half chance after 32 minutes, that hit a rising shot past Argentine goalkeeper Laura Mulhall after 40 minutes. But the South Americans hit back with field goals from Karina Masotta and Vanina Oneto. Australia collected maximum points in their five group matches and took their goal tally to 26 by defeating South Airica 5-2. Australian coach Ric
