£ 2000 fine on Lara

LONDON, June 1: Warwickshire captain Brian Lara was fined 2,000 pounds (3,200 dollars) by the English county today for turning up late and missing the Sunday League defeat by Somerset at Taunton, reports AFP.

The West Indian skipper flew back home to Trinidad early last week on business but his expected return on Saturday was delayed and he finally arrived at the ground 20 minutes before the start of the match.

But with Warwickshire unaware that their captain's arrival was imminent, they were unable to name him in their side and slipped to a fourwicket defeat - a costly blow to their attempts at retaining the Sunday title.

Lara was summoned to appear before a disciplinary hearing and was ordered to pay a 2,000 pound fine, a small proportion of the estimated 60,000 pounds he will earn this season for Warwickshire.

"We have had a full account from Brian about the problems he experienced and we accept there were some mitigating circumstances," said Dennis Amiss, chief executive of the club, who also revealed that Lara had apologised to the committee, team and members.

It is the second time this season that Lara has been delayed in the West Indies after missing his flight at the start of the summer which put his appearance at a news conference in doubt, a situation only resolved when Phil Simmons give up his seat to allow his Test captain to return in time.

Saglain does the rest

LONDON, June 1: Surrey cruised to their third English county championship win of the season Sunday when they completed a crushing innings defeat of Kent at The Oval, reports AFP.

Pakistan spinner Saqlain Mushtaq took Kent's last two wickets inside 25 minutes of the third day's play to keep Surrey top of the table as they recorded their first win over their visitors at The Oval for 12 years. Saglain finished the match with figures of seven for 118 as he and fellow spinner Ian Salisbury made the most of an Oval wicket which at times produced alarming turn. Nineteen wickets had fallen on the second day and Surrey's victory was a foregone conclusion at the start of play this morning.

Kent resumed at 195 for eight, still needing 62 runs to avoid a demoralising innings defeat, and any thoughts they may have harboured about forcing Surrey to bat again were soon dispelled when Saqlain struck in the third over.

Dean Headley, named in England's team to face South Africa in the first Test at Edgbaston on Thursday, drove at a full-length delivery and was bowled by the Surrey slow bowler with the score still at the World Cup begins. The match will be played next Saturday in Stuttgart, Johannesburg's Sunday Times reported.

Headley's dismissal brought together Min Patel and Martin McCague for the final wicket and they scored a quickfire 31 before their side's inevitable de-

The victory was a crucial one for Surrey, who will lose key players during the England series against South African this summer.

Bafana Bafana coach Philippe Troussier refused to give interviews after the team played a 1-1 draw on Saturday against a local German Second Division team, the Stuttgart Kickers. At South Africa's training camp in Obertal in Germany's Black Forest, Troussier has banned his players from the tennis courts with the threat of a 5,000 rand (1,000 dollars)

"Tennis is a dangerous sport and it would be catastrophic if one of the players got hurt on the court," Troussier was quoted as saying.

He said golf or bicycling through the countryside were more acceptable forms of recreation.

"We wish Jamaica the very best in the World Cup," said Yorke, a native of Trinidad and Tobago who plays for Aston Villa in the English Premier Division. "You can't judge them on this game. What's important is they learn from this and rise to the occasion in France." Yorke, a standout striker in England, rose to the occasion Sunday, scoring the winning goal in the 65th minute when he slipped a cross from Jerren Nixon into the net with the side of his boot. The setback proved to be a when they were criticised for their poor teamwork. On that occasion, coach Mario Zagallo said that "the Brazilian team were not on the field." His sentiments may have been the same on Sunday after another ragged effort from his men, who got in each others' way far too often for comfort. Zagallo's only consolation was that Brazil's players were clearly concerned about avoiding injury so close to the most important tournament of their careers day. He was repeatedly caught by Athletic's offside trap and when he finally beat it just before halftime, his shot went straight to the Athletic goal-By that time, Brazil were heading for defeat, Carlos Garcia having slid in to give the Spaniards a 19th minute lead after goalkeeper Taffarel failed to hold a cross. Rivaldo equalised three minutes into the second half with a well-taken goal from the edge of the penalty area after Cafu collected a misplaced pass and the Brazilians worked the ball across the face of the Athletic penalty area. Rivaldo nearly grabbed a winner in injury time when he clearly dribbled past two defenders, only to see a tame shot easily defended. But at the other end, Taffarel made up for his earlier misjudgement with three good saves which spared his country an embarrassing defeat.
