Index falls sharply

The DSE All Share Price Index sharply came down today by 89.00 points or 11.43 per cent to close at 689.47 points to erode previous day's 11.65 percentage points gain, reports BSS.

The massive price erosion of the day together with fall in volume evaporated previous day's market jubilation particularly among the brokers. Police had to come to rescue of the Dhaka Stock Exchange from the wrath of the angry small investors who besieged the bourse for about three hours to protest the day's market plunge that eroded the unusual gains of the previous session.

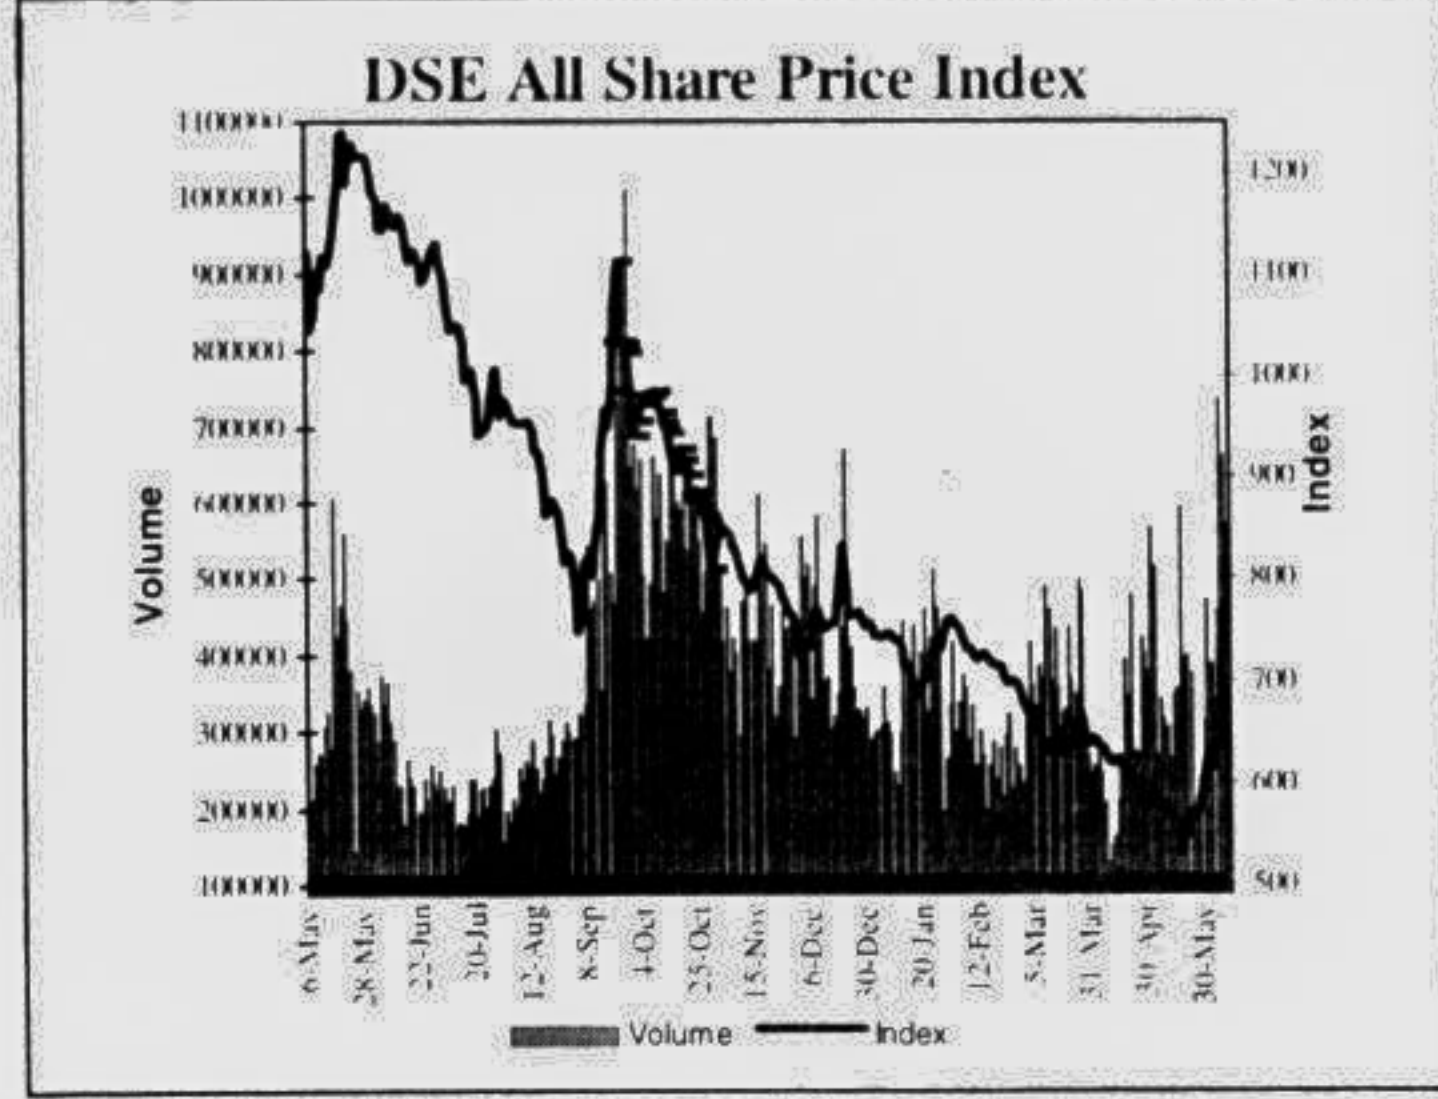

The angry small investors of the korb market criticised the DSE acting Chairman, Shahik Khan, for expressing skepticism cism over previous day's dizzying rise which he thought could harm the market stabilisation.

Out of 132 issues traded during the session 124 fell in value, only five gained and three remained pegged at last levels reversing previous day's 141 gainers, seven losers and one unchanged issue.
