Fate of Naogaon town protection embankment uncertain

NOAGAON, Jun 7: The fate of the town protection embankment here became uncertain with the dilly-dally attitude of the Water Development Board and the concerned ministry, reports UNB.

The project proposal, prepared to protect the town from the onrush of waters of the river Chhoto Jamuna during monsoon at a cost of Tk 23 crore, was reportedly lying for long with the concerned ministry for approval.

Under the project, sent last year following inundation of most of the areas of the town due to the flood, a total of 8.53 km town protection embankment was proposed to be constructed on both the east and west banks of the river Chhoto Jamuna.

Drug addicts on rise in Feni

FENI, Jun 7: The number of drug addicts has increased alarmingly in three districts of greater Noakhali region, reports UNB.

During the last four months, 29 people have died and over 100 fell sick after taking locally-made liquor in eight thanas of Feni, Noakhali and Laxmipur districts.

The incidents created panic among the people of the region, said the local people.

Of the dead, two succumbed in Companiganj thana, eight in Begumganj, one in Senbagh, three in Feni Sadar, five in Laxmipur sadar, three in Raipur, four in Ramganj and three in Ramgati thana.

Local people complained that home-made liquor, rectified spirit, Indian liquor, Phenidyl syrup and hemp are being sold openly at many places of the region.

They said concerned departments in the three districts have not taken any effective measure to check the spread of illegal drug trade.

Thousands of youths have become addicted to drugs because of its easy availability.

The areas where the drug addiction has taken an alarming turn include Majdee Court, Choumuhani bazar, Laxmipur town, Ramganj bazar, Raipur sadar, Basurhat bazar and Feni town.

The incidents of theft, snatching and dacoity have increased in these areas along with rise in drug addiction.

Bus strike in Sirajganj continues

SIRAJGANJ, Jun 7: Bus communication of the district with other parts of the country remained suspended for last six days due to a strike called by the bus workers, reports UNB.

The workers enforced the strike in protest against the attack on a leader of the district Motor Sramik Union recently.

General Secretary of the union and local Awami League leader Ansar Ali was injured in the attack following a clash between two rival groups at Dhangaora in the town.

Heatwave claims one in Narsingdi

NARSINGDI, Jun 7: One person died and 13 others fell sick in the town here due to heatwave coupled with loadshedding on Friday, reports UNB.

Baset, 25, an employee of a drug store at the Station Road fainted from the scorching heat. He died due to excessive sweating.

Thirteen others were admitted to the Sadar Hospital. They were later released from the hospital after necessary treatment.

Meanwhile, people of the town experienced 8-10 hours loadshedding on the day.

20 hurt as transport workers clash at Rajshahi

From Our Correspondent

RAJSHAHI, Jun 7: At least 20 people were injured, 11 of them seriously, in a clash between two rival groups of transport workers at the Stadium Railgate on Saturday.

The seriously injured were admitted to three private clinics.

Both the groups used lethal weapons and exploded bombs during the clash.

The clash erupted as a sequel to past feud between Rajshahi Truck Sramik Union led by Mahbubuzzaman Bhulu, city unit president of Awami League and Rajshahi District Motor Sramik Union led by Khairuzaman Liton, city unit general secretary of Awami League.

The two groups fought three times within a month for taking control over the Bus Terminal and Stadium Railgate.

COMILLA: Nazrul Joyanti was celebrated recently at village Daulatpur in Muradnagar thana by Daulatpur Nazrul Niketan.
