Call for awareness about more care for disabled

By Staff Correspondent

The rate of tolls for vehicles to cross the Bangabandhu Bridge has been fixed keeping in view the repayment of huge for-eign loans with interest and its maintenance, reports UNB. This was stated by Communications Minister Anwar Hossain while replying to a call notice in Parliament yesterday. Moving his notice Fazle Rabbi (JP) said that the rate of tolls was high and called for a reduction.

The minister said he had talks with the bus-truck owners' associations and will hold another meeting with them on June 16 about their demand to slash the rates.

"I can't say anything about re-fixing of tolls now," the minister said and added he will take up the matter with the Prime Minister.

He said the government took foreign loans amounting to Tk 2.400 crore out of total cost of the bridge of Tk 3,850 crore.

Compared to the hassle and time consuming crossing the river by ferry, the tolls fixed are not very high. The tolls for buses has been kept below what

Prof Sayeed tells Jatiya Sangsad

Steps being taken to enact laws to check yellow journalism

State Minister for Information Prof Abu Sayeed vesterday said the government is taking steps to enact laws with provision of punishment to check yellow journalism and influ-ence of alien culture in the country, reports BSS. Replying to a call attention notice from Prof Panna Kaiser (AL-Comilla-Chandpur), he said existing laws would be amended and improved to sternly deal with yellow journalism and alien culture.

"In this respect, there is necessity of all-out cooperation of all members of parliament," he said adding various measures undertaken by the present government against yellow journalism and alien culture have already started yielding positive results in the country. Prof Abu Sayeed told the parliament that leaders and activists of various women's organisations have already expressed their strong protest against yellow journalism and obscene news magazines which is a manifestation of widespread social awareness.

"We strongly feel that people are the source of all powers. Yellow journalism can be stopped if protest comes from the people themselves," he said seeking active cooperation of all sections of people.

Agreeing fully with the contents of the call attention notice raised by Prof Panna Kaiser. Prof Abu Sayeed expressed his firm belief that each and everyone of the society was against yellow journalism. Some people in the name of journalism are engaged in spreading slan-der about famous artists and personalities to serve their own heinous purposes.

Prof Abu Sayeed further said that mass media, specially betar and television, were broadcasting programmes to create public awareness against yellow journalism. "Various news items, articles and features are also being published in the newspapers against yellow journalism," he said.

The State Minister for Information urged members of the journalist community as well as other conscious sections of people to resist this practice.

Govt to take steps to compensate flood-hit people

SYLHET, Jun 14: Foreign Minister Abdus Samad Azad said the government is committed to taking necessary steps to compensate the flood-affected people and resolve flood problems, reports BSS.

He said this while addressing a district development and disaster management coordination meeting in the conference room of the deputy commissioner here yesterday.

State Minister for Disaster Management and Relief Talukdar Abdul Khaleq attended the meeting as special guest.

The foreign minister said the government of Prime Minister Sheikh Hasina is working for the welfare of people, ensuring the best use of public resources. The efforts of the government are aimed at changing the lot of the people economically through ensuring the politics of transparency, he said. The minister said the government has achieved the confidence of the foreigners, including donor agencies by infusing dynamism in decision-making. State Minister for Disaster Management and Relief Talukdar Abdul Khaleq directed the concerned officials to prepare an appropriate list of the flood-affected people. He said VGF cards will be given to each of the flood affected family for two months, a rehabilitation programme will be taken for the flood-affected people, he as-

Navy personnel urged to maintain congenial atmosphere

CHITTAGONG, June 14 Chief of the Naval Staff Rear Admiral Mohammad Nurul Islam yesterday called upon the BN personnel to maintain the prevailing congenial atmosphere for effective exploitation, protection and utilisation of the marine resources which are inextricably linked with the overall economic development of the country, reports BSS.

The Navy Chief was addressing the President's Parade marking the commissioning of a batch of midshipmen of the Bangladesh Navy at the Naval Academy parade ground at Patenga this morning. Admiral Islam inspected the smartly turned out parade and took the salute at the impressive march past. He distributed the Bachelor of Science degree certificates conferred upon the midshipmen by the National University and handed over medals and trophies to the outstanding midshipmen.

Midshipman M A Zaman (x) BN was adjudged the best allround midshipman and was awarded the coveted cup of the Chief of Naval Staff. He also bagged the Osmany

Gold Medal for his proficiency in academic subjects. Midshipman M J U Chowdhury (x) BN received the gold medal of the Chief of Naval Staff for his feats in professional subjects.

The Navy Chief called upon the newly-commissioned officers to attain high standards of professional competence, to ensure un-hindered exploitation of the marine resources and stop the menace of smuggling and other unlawful activities in the coastal areas with an iron Paying rich tributes to the memory of the martyrs of the liberation war of Bangladesh in 1971, Admiral Islam said members of the armed forces along with the patriotic people had fought shoulder to shoulder which ultimately paved the way for liberation. He reminded the newly commissioned officers that our predecessors had set high examples of putting duty before self and it should be their endeavour to live up to that standard.

The Navy Chief directed them to build themselves as true military leaders and urged them to make proper utilisation of man and machine to be put under their command in future.

The spectacular parade was witnessed, among others, by local members of the parliament, members of the foreign diplomatic missions in Bangladesh, local area commander of the Bangladesh Army Major General Abu Kaisar Fazlul Kabir, high civil and military officials and guardians of the midship-

Poverty alleviation most vital part of development

LGRD and Cooperatives Minister Zillur Rahman yesterday said the government is committed to evolving a permanent, and fruitful method of service system to improve the condition of the rural poor, reports

"Poverty alleviation is the most vital part of our national development policies," he said while inaugurating a two-day workshop on "Strategies for Poverty Eradication" at a hotel in the city.

Chaired by the Secretary of Rural Development and Cooperatives Syed Marghub Morshed, the function was addressed, among others, by the State Minister for LGRD and Cooperatives Molazzai Hossain Chowdhury Maya, Birbikram and Director General of Bangladesh Rural Development Board (BRDB) Mufazzal Hos-

The LGRD minister said reduction of poverty will be achieved through expansion of productive employment and income generating activities, human resources development and skill formation, greater participation of women and youth in the development process. In fact the fifth five-year plan takes a comprehensive view on rural poverty, he said. Zillur Rahman said the government has allocated Tk 87,000 million for rural development in the fifth five year plan where as Tk 19,600 million was allocated in the previous five year plan. He said the gigantic task of said that the country cannot develop without addressing the rural development requires problems of the 120 crore diswell-defined strategies and concerned efforts by efficient organisations, such as ministries as well as other government and non-government agencies.

The LGRD Minister said more than one third of the world's population live in absolute poverty and in Bangladesh half of its population is still living below the poverty line. He said our first government under the leadership of Banga bandhu Sheikh Mujibur Rahman started poverty alleviation movement immediately after liberation of the country. The minister said we feel en couraged to see that food production has reached almost to the level of self-sufficiency population growth has slowed down, access to safe drinking water has increased, primary education is expanding rapidly with significant increase in literacy rate and rural women are gaining economic and social freedom. These have been achieved through decades of endeavours by both government and non-government organisations, he added. State Minister for LGRD and Cooperatives Mofazzal Hossain Chowdhury Maya said an integrated effort is required to fight against poverty. He said we have to utilise the resources of the country carefully for developing the lot of the rural people. Maya further said that the government of Prime Minister Sheikh Hasina has laid emphasis on the programmes for eradicating poverty. A total of 34 officers from different government, non-government and donor agencies are participating the workshop.

Quamrul Islam Siddique, chief engineer, LGED and Brian Grover, programme manager UNDP-World Bank Water and Sanitation Programme signed a MOU on water and sanitation programme yesterday at the LGED headquarter in the city.
