Rafiq meets his S'porean counterpart

Home Minister Rafiqul Islam yesterday met with his Singaporean counterpart Wong Kan Sang in Singapore, according to a message received here, reports UNB.

The meeting took place during a stopover of the Home Minister in Singapore on his way back home from New York where he joined the 20th UNGA assembly on drugs.

During the meeting they discussed various issues, including welfare and increase of facilities for the Bangladeshi workers in Singapore. The Singapore Minister expressed satisfaction over the skill and sincerity of the Bangladeshi labourers working there.

Bangladesh High Commissioner at Singapore Ashfaqur Rahman was present at the meeting.

25 technical institutions to be set up

The government has decided to set up 12 science and technology universities and 13 polytechnic institutes in the country in phases, reports BSS.

This was stated by Education Minister ASHK Sadeque yesterday while replying to questions from Kazi Sirajul Islam (AL-Faridpur) and Ramesh Chandra (AL-Thakurgaon).

The concerned authorities have already selected sites in Gopalganj district to set up a science and technology university there as per report of the committee formed earlier in this regard. The committee is headed by the cabinet secretary, the minister added.

The Education Minister further said the government has plans to set up a polytechnic institute in Thakurgaon district by the year 2003 if the project concept paper (PCP) is approved.

BRVIDA hands over 3-pt memorandum to Kibria

By Staff Correspondent

Bangladesh Reconditioned Vehicles Importers and Dealers Association (BRVIDA) yesterday brought out a silent procession in the city's Nayapalton and Motijheel area protesting rise of supplementary duty and depreciation cost in the proposed budget for 1998-99, says a press release.

The BRVIDA brought out the procession to lodge their protest to the Finance Minister SAMS Kibria who went to the FBCCI Building at Motijheel for a post budget discussion.

Later, the BRVIDA leaders handed over a three-point memorandum to the minister, the release said.

Meanwhile, as per earlier decisions, BRVIDA will keep all the showrooms across the country closed and unloading of cars suspended until their demands are met.

The association has also called an emergency general meeting of the Nightingale Restaurant Saturday to discuss their future course of actions, the release said.

Seminar on regional cooperation Saturday

BNP Secy Gen demands arrest of JCD leader's attackers

BNP Secretary General Abdul Mannan Bhuiyan yesterday demanded immediate arrest of the culprits who cut off the wrists of a JCD leader at Pabna on Tuesday, reports UNB.

In a statement, Bhuiyan said "Chhatra League terrorists" swooped on Muntajur Rahman Muntaj, former GS of Shaheed Bulbul Govt College students' union while coming to join a rally at Kashinathpur.

He said the terrorists chopped off his wrists, and his legs, and stabbed indiscriminately in broad day light.

Describing the incident as inhuman, Bhuiyan said this heinous act "remind us the brutal terrorism of 1972-75 period."

In another statement, the BNP secretary general asked the government to release all the leaders and workers of BNP and its front organisations who were arrested ahead of today's hartal.

The Vice-Chancellor of Dhaka University Prof A K Azad Chowdhury laid the foundation stone of a new building of the Geology Department at the Curzon Hall premises yesterday.
