Gano Forum demands revision, changes in proposed budget

By Staff Correspondent

Foreign newsmen meet Speaker
 A group of foreign journalists, who came to cover the inaugural ceremony of the Bangabandhu Jamuna Multipurpose Bridge today, called on Speaker Humayun Rashid Chowdhury at his office yesterday, reports UNB.

Gano Forum (GF) has demanded revision and changes in the proposed budget saying that it failed to give any direction regarding eradication of unemployment, creating resources, harnessing investment and revamping of industrialisation, says a press release.

At a meeting of its standing committee with its acting president Advocate Zahirul Islam in the chair yesterday, GF resolved that the budget was not consistent with the pre-election pledge of the ruling party.

The allocations for the unproductive sector is 63 per cent which is almost double the development expenditure the meeting observed.

GF also said that the increase of defence expenditure was unexpected and the government's lack of accountability in this sector cannot be the feature of a democratically elected government.

GF expressed concern at the increasing inflation and said that the foreign exchange reserve was inadequate.

The party also expressed disappointment at less than 10 per cent increase of allocation in education sector and said that it was inadequate to meet the nation's requirement.

Criticising the budget GF said, "Poor people will have to bear the burden of indirect taxes due to the expansion of VAT net."
