Body exhumed

MUNSHIGANJ, June 26: The body of a young housewife, allegedly killed by her husband, was exhumed from Baluakandi graveyard by Gazaria thana police recently in presence of a 1st class magistrate, reports BSS.

According to the complaint lodged in the sadar magistrate's court by father of the housewife Mansura Begum, 20, she was beaten to death by her husband Habibur Rahman on June 6 night. But the husband passed it off as an incident of suicide after pouring poison into the mouth of the deceased. As directed by the court. Gazaria thana police exhumed the body for autopsy. A case was started in this regard, it is learnt.

Phensidyl recovered

THAKURGAON, June 26: Ninety bottles of phensidyl were seized from Bhaularhat under Thakurgaon sadar thana recently, reports BSS. Acting on a tip-off a police contingent from Thakurgaon police station went to Bhaularhat, 15 kilometres from the town and recovered 90 bottles of phensidyl from some wheat bags. According to police sources, the phensidyl were smuggled from Indian inside wheat bags. The smugglers fled away leaving the wheat bags seeing the police contingent.

Teesta erosion victims yet to be rehabilitated

From Our Correspondent

RANGPUR June 26: The Teesta river erosion victims are yet to be rehabilitated. It has been alleged by the victims .Prime Minister Sheikh Hasina announced at a public meeting at Dimla Teesta college ground during her visit in Nilphamari last year, the erosion victms will be rehabilitated soon. But the commitment of the prime minister has not been materialised till writing of this report.As a result thousands of erosion victims of the area have become disappointed.

According to a survey, since the independence of Bangladesh at least three lakhs people lost thier homesteads, cultivable lands and many other property due to devastating erosion of the river Teesta. All these victims were residents of Dimla, Jaldhaka and Kishoregoni thanas in Nilphamari district and Gangachhara, Pirgachha thanas in Rangpur district. Most of these uprooted families have been living under temporary sheds and shelters along the embankments of the river Teesta and other available places now. They have been passing days in inhuman conditions. Proper foodings, cloth-their reach. Moreover, educational facilities and other amenities are far off from them. Many of these erosion victims have resorted to begging to earn their livelihood. Practically, almost all the erosion victims of these two districts have been passing ings, medical aids are beyond their days in a very pitiable condition .They have been fighting with many odds now, it has been alleged.

On many occasions the river erosion victims approached to the higher authorities with a view to reddressing their sufferings, but so far nobody paid heed to their appeals. Ministers and many high officials of the past governments visited these two districts earlier. They assured of their rehabilitation in responce to their appeals. But all those assurances went in

This time the erosion victims got the assurance of the prime minister. They became very hopeful but their hopes and aspirations are yet to be fulfilled.
