PM addresses function at Kotalipara

Govt pledge-bound to bring smiles on faces of poor

KOTALIPARA, June 26: Prime Minister Sheikh Hasina said her government is pledgebound to arrange two-square course of meals for the poor and bring smiles on their faces for which Father of the Nation Bangabandhu Sheikh Mujibur Rahman had made sacrifices and suffered throughout his life, reports BSS.

The Prime Minister was speaking at a function, organised by the Social Welfare Department for distributing oldage allowances among 1,080 men and women from 108 wards under 12 unions of Kotalipara thana.

An amount of Taka 324,000 against three months' pension was distributed among them. Besides, each recipient was given an extra amount of Taka 20 as tiffin money as they came here from far-flung areas of the thana to receive their allowances.

State Minister for Social Welfare, Women and Children Affairs Dr. Mozammel Hossain, Awami League Gopalganj district General Secretary Sheikh Mohammad Abdullah, Deputy Commissioner of Gopalganj Nasiruddin, and director of the Social Welfare Directorate Mir Shahbuddin Also spoke on the While receiving, the envelopes containing the three months' allowances most of the elderly persons became emotional and some of them could not drive back tears. The prime minister very affectionately hugged and encouraged them to overcome all hurdles of life.

Bent by the burden of age and painful experiences of life, the 65-year Jyotin Howladar told BSS after receiving the allowance that he would pray from the core of his heart for the prime minister for taking this decision in favour of the aged people who have nobody to look after.

In a choking voice he said, "sometimes by heart cried for a silver-colour hilsha fish or a ripe jackfruit, but I could not buy those as I had no means," a confident Howladar after receiving the money said that now he would be able to buy not only a hilsha fish or a jackfruit but anything he wants to eat at this stage of his life.

Almost similar views were expressed by Abdul Hai Kazi of Baiddyabari Union, Imdad Khan, Nasar Bibi and Saju Bibi, who all said that once they had happiness and pleasures. But today they are penniless and they have nobody to look after.
"My grandson will definitely take some extra care of me as I have now at least some cash in my hand," said Saju Bibi obliquely.

The Prime Minister said that it is her government's commitment to see the welfare from the new-born babies to the old-age people as her party was always for the cause of the downtrodden. "My governmen-t's policy is to alleviate poverty and making people self-re-liant," she added.

Listing some of the welfareoriented measures of her government, the prime minister said under the integrated rural development programme an amount of Taka 121 crore would be spent while for destitutes and orphan children another amount of Taka 77 crore has been sanctioned.

Seventy-seven shishu sadans would turn into shishu pallies while six centres would be set up at six divisional headquarters for socially retarded

Fifty-seven new centres would be set up across the country for the blinds while river erosion victims would be provided housing facilities under Asharyan Prokalpa.

The prime minister referred to the setting up of employment bank and other income generating programmes of the government, which she said, would help improving the lot of the

BELA concerned at attempt to import 320 2-stroke engine tempo

By Staff Correspondent

Bangladesh Environmental Lawyers Association (BELA) has expressed concern over an attempt to import 320 two-stroke engine vehicles known as tempo violating the government decision. In a statement last night the BELA said though the second meeting of the national environmental committee under chairmanship of the prime minister prohibited importation of two-stroke engine vehicles, various irregularities were reported in different dailies on sanctioning loans for it from state owned banks.

It also mentioned an attempt of importation of baby taxi by a loan defaulter which was later stayed by Bangladesh Bank.

Criticising the authorities for repeated violation of existing law regarding sanctioning of loan and lack of commitment for protection of environment BELA demanded cancellation of all such attempt.

Hun Sen won't take part in polls campaign

KOMPONG SPEU, June 26: Cambodian leader Hun Sen said Friday he will not take part in a month-long campaign for elec-tions he is highly favoured to win, preferring to stay on the sidelines as his challengers vie for votes, reports AP.

Hun Sen, whom opponents accuses of stacking the July 26 polls in his favour through violence and packing electoral bodies with his supporters, told reporters that he does not see any of rivals as a real threat to his chances.

The chief opponents are Prince Norodom Ranariddh whom Hun Sen ousted as his coprime minister in bloody power grab last year, and prominent dissident Sam Rainsy, a former finance minister.

Hun Sen said that actively participating in the race, which officially opened Thursday, could create unwanted tensions among his challengers and perhaps lessen his position of strength.

"I don't look down on my competitors," Hun Sen remarked. "But they are not fit enough to draw me into a faceto-face confrontation."

The elections will be Cambodia's first since 1993, when UN peacekeeping troops were part of a 2 billion dollars effort to usher in a new era of peace and democracy after the Khmer Rouge genocide of the late 1970s, followed by a decade of Vietnamese occupation.

Ranariddh's royalist FUNC-INPEC party won in 1993, but agreed under threats of renewed civil war to share power with Hun Sen's formerly communist Cambodian People's Party.

The tense coalition shattered in battles between their armed supporters last year. As many as 90 of Hun Sen's political opponents, apart from soldiers on the battlefield, have since been killed. No one has ever been arrested. Hun Sen hopes the elections will win back international legitimacy and aid, but critics say the process is little more than a cynical farce. Hun Sen - who controls the media and the security forces - said Friday he prefers to act as a referee during the campaign to ensure others can do so safely. "If I campaign, it would look no different than a football player who also blows the whistle and it would not look good even if I win," Hun Sen

Hun Sen's withdrawal from the spotlight suggests he is both confident of the outcome and wary of upsetting what has so far been a green-light given by the international community for the polls despite acknowledged abuses.

Proposal for autonomy in hospital management opposed by leaders

By Staff Corespondent

Leaders at a meeting Thursday of the Central Committee of the Bangladesh Health Department Government Employees Samity strongly opposed proposal for autonomy in the hospital management in a bid to strengthen the health services.

The leaders in their resolution at a meeting yesterday held at Dhaka Medical College Hospital premises, said, "We will reject such proposal for auton-omy. It will not benefit us. The proposal looks for development of the higher class of the society. Before planning for such a plan (proposed in the fifth five year plan) they should have discussed with us which has more than 85,000 members but they

The General Secretary of the central committee Md Abdul Khaleq while talking to Daily Star yesterday said, "I would like to point out that the same people who were included in the policy making of the autonomy proposal have literally failed to provide an efficient management in the country. How on earth we can trust them? he asked. They (doctors) are seeing their part of the benefit in autonomy of the programme." He said, "We called a 12 hour strike Wednesday in all hospitals across the country in protest against the proposal for autonomy. We have given a deadline of upto July 2 for a written assurance from the chairman of the parliamentary standing committee on health ministry. If he fails to give us the assurance, we will announce a action programme in our scheduled July 11 meeting."

When contacted Dr Kazi Abu Yusuf, Chairman of the parliamentary standing committee on health ministry, said, "The government has already give assurance through TV and radio coverage that there is no plan for 'privatisation' (part of autonomy) in the health sector. So, there is no need for fresh assurance from me."
