Eid-e-Miladunnabi observed

The holy Eid-e-Miladunnabi, the sanctimonious occasion marking the birth and death anniversary of the greatest Prophet Hazrat Muhammad (SM), was observed throughout the country on Thursday with due religious fervour, reports BSS.

Muslim devotees at mosques and homes offered 'darood and salam' as well as special prayers in unison with their millions of brethren across the world seeking blessings of the Almighty Allah for the salvation of mankind in the world and the world thereafter.

President Shahabuddin Ahmed and Prime Minister Sheikh Hasina issued separate messages on the occasion highlighting the importance and significance of the day. BNP chairperson and Leader of the Opposition in Parliament Khaleeda Zia also issued a message on the occasion.

Milad mahfil, quran khwani, doa mahfil, seminar and discussion on the life of Hazrat Muhammad (SM) marked the occasion throughout the country.

A milad mahfil was held at Bangabhaban Tuesday afternoon, according to a Bangabhaban press release.

President Shahabuddin Ahmed attended the milad mahfil. Among others, Chief Justice A T M Afzal, ministers, diplomats of Muslim countries, Judges of the Supreme Court, secretaries, national professors, former justices, Independence Day award recipients, vice-chancellors, editors, leaders of Supreme Court Ainjibi Samity and Bar Council, members of business community, senior advocates and high civil and military officials attended.

A special munajat was offered on the occasion seeking divine blessings for continued peace and progress of the country.

Renowned religious leader and president of Ahle Sunnat al Jamaat Alhaz Shah Sufi Sayyed Mainuddin Ahmed Maizbhandari led the mass prayer where the Muslims prayed to the Almighty Allah for the peace and progress of the country as well as the Muslim Ummah and for the welfare of mankind.

Chittagong

The holy Eid-e-Miladunnabi was observed here on Tuesday.

Apart from the national programmes, various political, professional and socio-cultural organisations observed the greatest religious occasion through elaborate programmes which included discussions, seminars, milad mahfils, quran khawans, doa mahfils and processions.

A big procession was brought out from Alamgir Khanka Sharif at Sholoshahar which paraded through various city roads.

Narayanganj

Holy Eid-e-Miladunnabi was observed Tuesday in a befitting manner.

The highlights of the day's programme included procession, milad mahfil, waz mahfil, feeding of the destitute, special prayers and illumination.

A huge colourful procession, organised by Narayanganj Eid-e-Miladunnabi Udayan Committee, was brought out from Netaiganj Baitul Izzat Jame Mosque in the morning.

Khulna

The holy Eid-e-Miladunnabi was observed here Tuesday with due religious solemnity and enthusiasm.

The national flag was hoisted atop all public and private buildings, and milad mahfils, seminars, discussions and special prayers were offered under the auspices of different socio-cultural and religious organisations.

Ashari Purnima celebrated

CHITTAGONG, July 8: Ashari Purnima, one of the major festivals of the Buddhists was celebrated in the city and elsewhere in the district today with solemn devotion and traditional enthusiasm, reports BSS.

The Buddhists celebrate the Purnima in commemoration of the renunciation of the earthly life by Siddhartha (Buddha) and the first preaching by Lord Buddha the essence of the Buddhism after his attainment of enlightenment.

From day after the Purnima Buddhist monks will go into one month long seclusion inside their monasteries for their self purification.

The Purnima was celebrated at all monasteries through day long programmes. The day's programmes began with hoisting of the national and religious flags atop all monasteries and chanting of the sacred verses from the Tripitaka.

Breaking of fasting congregation Pindadana, Shil Grahan mass prayer, blood donation, discussion meetings and cultural functions are also highlighted in the programmes.

Since the morning hundreds of Buddhists devotees from different parts of the city defying rain joined the congregations held at Nandankan Buddhists temple, Katalganj Navapandit Vihar, Purnachar International Buddhist Monastery at Dypahar, Sarabanjan Buddha Vihar at Momin Road and Biswamoltry Bouddha Vihar at Agrabad.

Special prayers were also offered in all monasteries seeking peace and progress of the nation as well global peace.

According to report reaching here the Purnima was also celebrated in the Buddhist populated regions of Chittagong Hill Tracts, Khagrachhari, Cox's Bazar, Noakhali and Comilla, in a befitting manner.

Miladunnabi observed in missions abroad

The holy Eid-e-Miladunnabi was observed at Bangladesh missions abroad with due religious fervour and solemnity, reports UNB.

Discussion meetings on the life of Prophet Mohammed (SM) and milad mahfils were arranged at embassies in Bahrain and Egypt on July 6 and in Nepal, Iran and Canada on July 7 on the occasion. Special prayers were also offered for the well-being and continued prosperity of Bangladesh and its people.

Embassy officials, their family members and expatriate Bangladeshis in the respective countries attended the programmes.
