NU exam results out today

By Staff Correspondent
Results of Degree (pass) and Certificate course examinations held in 1997 under the National University (NU) will be published at 11 am today, says a press release.
All concerned have been asked to collect their results from respective examination centres.
No arrangements, however, have been made to publish the results at the NU campus in Gazipur, the release said.

Publication ceremony of Dipa Haq's book today

By Staff Correspondent
The publication ceremony of a collection of works by ailing artist Dipa Haq will be held at Shilpakala Academy auditorium at 5:30 pm today, says a press release.
Chief Adviser of the former caretaker government Justice Muhammad Habibur Rahman will be the chief guest while Prof Anisuzzaman will be the special guest at the ceremony.
The 120-page book, titled 'Dipa Haq' contains 90 art works in colour by the artist, who is suffering from cancer. Bangladesh Shilpakala Academy has published the book, sponsored by Grindlays Bank and Square Pharmaceuticals Ltd.
The book is priced at Tk 500 and 1000 copies will be donated to the 'Dipa Haq Treatment Assistance Committee' to raise funds for her treatment.

GSS offers buses to students visiting Liberation War Museum

Gano Sahaja Sangstha (GSS) has extended the services of two its buses twice a week to transport students of various schools and colleges visiting the MuktiJuddha Jadughar, says a press release.
Students have been visiting the Museum without any entrance fee under its 'Out Reach Programme' since February, 1997.
Authorities of schools and colleges have been requested to contact 'Uttaradhikar,' a social welfare organisation, at Room six (second floor), 130, DIT Extension Road, to make arrangements for visiting the Museum.

Time extended

By Staff Correspondent
The duration of photography exhibition by Inam-ul-Haq on 'Birds of Bangladesh' has been extended till July 20.
Organised by the National Museum, the exhibition was inaugurated by the Minister for Forest and Environment on June 28, says a press release.
