'Dipa Haq' published Book to help raise funds for ailing artist

The publication ceremony of a book on the complete works of artist Dipa Haq was held at the Shilpakala Academy in the city yesterday, reports BSS.

The function was attended by Justice Muhammad Habibur Rahman as chief guest, Prof M Anisuzzaman, artist Gayum Chowdhury, artist Hashem Khan, Prof Abul Monsoor and a large number of friends and well-wishers of Dipa Haq, who has been desperately fighting a battle against cancer for nearly two years, were also present.

Justice Habibur Rahman said the killer disease cancer could not stop her from continuing her art work in all media, which depict the skill and virtuosity of a dedicated artist.

"Dipa is fighting cancer but still active with her painting," he said and wished early recovery of the talented artist.

The book titled 'Dipa Haq' has been published by Shilpakala Academy with a view to raising funds for her treatment.

Azad Rahman, Director General of Shilpakala Academy, who presided over the function, said that 1000 books have been published in the first print, priced at Taka 500 each.

"We hope to raise Taka five lakh by selling these books and we will use the money for the treatment of Dipa Haq," he said.

The 7.5 inch by 8.5 inch book with 120 pages contains copies of 84 art works by Dipa Haq.

A versatile genius, Dipa Haq did her Bachelor of Fine Arts (BFA) degree from Dhaka Arts College in 1978 and earned fame as a young artist at home and abroad through solo and group exhibitions of her paintings.

BIUEF begins strike

By Staff Correspondent

Bangladesh Inter University Employees Federation (BIUEF) Sunday began a 12-day strike in eight universities across the country to realise seven point charter of demands, says a press release.

The demands include revision of the pay scale, raising of retirement age from 60 to 65 year and provision for representation of employees to different bodies of the universities including the senate and the syndicate.

BIUEF also threatened another three-day strike bringing emergency services under its purview from July 21 if their demands are not met.

The eight universities under the purview of BIUEF are Chittagong University, Shahjalal University, Sylhet, Agricultural University, Mymensingh, National University, Open University, Jahangirnagar University, Islamic University, Kushtia and Rajshahi University.

Meanwhile, a press release signed by the Public Relations Officer of Dhaka University (DU) yesterday said the employees of DU would not go on any strike. "All the offices in DU are working as per schedule," the release said.
