New Lankan envoy calls on PM

The newly appointed High Commissioner of Sri Lanka to Bangladesh EG Dayananda called on Prime Minister Sheikh Hasina at her Ganabhaban office in the city yesterday, reports UNB.

During the meeting, the Sri Lankan envoy conveyed the greetings and good wishes of his country's president Chandrika Kumaratunga to Sheikh Hasina.

Describing the ties between Bangladesh and Sri Lanka as excellent, the High Commissioner hoped that the relations will further be consolidated in the years to come.

Dayananda said his endeavour will continue to strengthen further the relations between the two countries.

Welcoming the High Commissioner, the Prime Minister said the excellent bilateral relations and cooperation will be strengthened further in future.

She also conveyed her greetings and good wishes to the Sri Lankan President.

Foreign Secretary Mostafizur Rahman was present on the occasion.

Call to present Bangladeshi culture to foreigners

Bangladesh Ambassador to the US KM Shehabuddin has called upon the expatriate Bangladeshis to present our rich, cultural heritage to the foreigners for enhancing country's image abroad, reports UNB.

He was speaking as chief guest at a function held at New Jersey on July 18 organised by the Association of New Jersey to welcome the Bangla New Year.

Ambassador Shehabuddin said our cultural pursuit in a foreign land will not only leave behind a deep imprint in the minds of other nationalities about Bangladesh but will also help them know our country better.

Ambassador Shehabuddin said the expatriate Bangladeshis in USA can greatly contribute to the efforts of the Prime Minister Sheikh Hasina, who is working relentlessly for the welfare and well-being of the people and make Bangladesh as a real 'Sonar Bangla' as dreamt by Bangabandhu Sheikh Mujibur Rahman.

The function rounded up by holding cultural function.

President of Bangladesh Society of New York Akhter Hossain and Dr Nurunnabi, Editor, Weekly Prabashi, among others, spoke on the occasion.

Skilled manpower is a precondition to nat'l dev: Maya

State Minister for LGRD and Cooperatives Mofazzal Hossain Chowdhury Maya has said an educated and skilled manpower is a precondition to national development, reports UNB.

He was speaking at a stipend giving function as chief guest at the Zilla Parishad auditorium in the city yesterday.

The State Minister said today's talented and meritorious students will lead the nation in future.

Maya urged the stipend recipient students to build up themselves as worthy citizens of the country by proper utilisation of the valuable student life.

Later, he distributed stipend money among the students of Dhaka district.

It may be mentioned that Dhaka district administration awarded 59 meritorious students with stipend in 1997-98 financial year.

Science fiction film week concludes

State Minister for Information Prof Abu Sayeed yesterday said the nation should move towards advancement with its own thoughts and spirit based on 1000 years old Bengali culture and tradition, reports BSS.

He said the Bengali nation had inherited a very rich culture but it could not be projected abroad as the country was under foreign rule for hundreds of years.

The state minister was speaking as the chief guest at the concluding function of a science fiction film week organised by the Dhaka University Film Society (DUFS) at Central Public Library auditorium in the city.

Chaired by the Vice-Chancellor of Dhaka University Prof AK Azad Chowdhury, the function was also addressed by artist Mostafa Monowar, Associate Professor of Dhaka University and moderator of DUFS Dr Arefin Siddiqui, convener of the film week Shaiful Alam, general secretary of DUFS Hasan Al-Farooq and member-secretary Biplob Mustafiz.

The science fiction film week was sponsored by NIT, Beximco Systems Ltd. About 8,000 students watched 21 films screened during the week.
