PARIS, Aug 1 (Reuters/ In-ternet): Former French and German internationals will take part in a benefit match in September for Daniel Nivel, the Lens policeman currently in a coma after being clubbed by hooligans during the World Cup finals.

The French Football Federation, announcing the match on Friday, said it would be played on September 20 in the German town of Kehl across the border from Strasbourg. The game will be played under the slogan 'Yes to football without violence" and the proceeds will go to Nivel's family.

Nivel was attacked by German hooligans and clubbed repeatedly before Germany's World Cup first round match against Yugoslavia in Lens on June 21.

Zivadinovic new Yugoslav coach

BELGRADE, Yugoslavia, Aug 1: Milan Zivadinovic, former manager of Red Star Belgrade and the under-21 team, on Saturday became the new coach of the Yugoslav national soccer team, reports AP.

Zivadinovic, 53, replaces Slobodan Santrac, who resigned following Yugoslavia's early exit from the World Cup this summer in France.

Yugoslavia lost 2-1 to the Netherlands in the second round and Santrac was bitterly criticized for his defensive tac-

The job of the national team coach had been offered to former Atletico Madrid manager, Radomir Antic, but he refused it, preferring to stay in Spain and remain in club soccer.

Zivadinovic, who trained Red Star Belgrade in the early 1990s and ended his playing career in 1975 in Germany's minor league, is virtually unknown in international soccer.

tial champions. "It's an important start, it's a bit of a surprise to find a fixture like Parma-Juve on the third weekend of the season," Juventus coach Marcello Lippi said. Inter Milan, who pushed Juventus all the way last season start their title assault at Cagliari. They meet Juventus on the sixth weekend in what is sure to be one of the most heated encounters of the championship. Last season's title decider between the two sides in Turin triggered uproar when the referee denied Inter's Brazilian star Ronaldo what appeared to be a penalty. Juventus won the match 1-0 to dash the Milan side's championship hopes.

The match prompted accusations that Italy's referees were biased towards Juventus. owned by the powerful Angelli family.

CHELMSFORD, England, Aug 1: Daryll Cullinan scored his second century of the tour as South Africa racked up an imposing total of 406 for five on the first day of the three-day match against Es-

Srinath ready to roll

CHENNAI, Aug 1: Paceman Javagal Srinath is all keyed up to return to the Indian cricket team after an injury lay-off, declaring 'all I need now is match practice', reports PTI.

Srinath, assisting the Karnataka XI in the ongoing Buchi Babu tournament here, proclaimed that he was back to his best and would make it to the Indian team immediately. The lanky bowler, who last played for India on April 1 in the inaugural match of the triangular series against Australia at Kochi before being sidelined due to a painful side strain told PTI, "One has to be 120 per cent fit to play in any international game. I am confident about my making a come Srinath had had become the pace spearhead on Kapil Dev's retirement but has had to grapple with fitness problems.

Srinath was impressive in the Diana memorial match at the Lord's on July 18 in his first outing on return to action. Appearing for MCC XI he beat the bat of his teammate Sachin Tendulkar, rest of the world skipper, quite a few times with pace and movement to declare his full fitness.

"I did not go full blast there. It was only about 80 per cent of my capabilities," Srinath said. "Even after the physical injury healed, it takes some time to regain psychologically. But all now need is match practice and so I am here."

Srinath, who had a rich haul of 86 wickets for Gloucestershire a few seasons back and is on the verge of becoming the third Indian paceman to complete 100 Test scalps said, Bowling in different conditions and on different pitches like the helpful Lord's and placid Chennai and Bang a lore pitches - should augur well for

Rangers, in contrast, have licked their wounds and could reap the rewards of a carefullyplanned restructuring under new coach Dick Advocaat, who knew six months ago that he was leaving PSV Eindohoven to succeed Walter Smith.
