PM visits injured policemen at CMH

Prime Minister Sheikh Hasina yesterday visited the Combined Military Hospital (CMH) to see the injured policemen Mohammad Shahjahan and Julfu Miah, reports UNB.

Havilder Shahjahan and constable Julfu Miah, now undergoing treatment at the Intensive Care Unit of the hospital, were critically injured in bomb explosions during Thursday's hartal enforced by BNP and its allies.

The Prime Minister enquired about their condition and asked the attending doctors to take best possible care of the injured policemen.

Home Minister Rafiqul Islam, Chief of Army Staff Lt General Mustafizur Rahman and the IGP were present.

Report on major crime incidents published

"Tadanta Prakashana," a detailed investigative report on major crime incidents in the country, has been published, reports UNB.

The publication contains 71 reports on various crimes, including rape, repression on women and children, and their trafficking, during the first six months of this year.

The report, published by Bangladesh Society for Enforcement of Human Rights, was launched at a press briefing at the Jatiya Press Club yesterday.

Justice Kemaluddin Hossain was the chief guest, while Press Club president Reazuddin Ahmed, BSEHR secretary general advocate Sigma Huda and advocate Alina Khan addressed the briefing.

The report also contains recommendations made by the investigators to overcome the difficulties faced by crime victims in filing complaints and the human rights activists in conducting investigations.

Career Opportunity

A non-banking financial institution in multinational collaboration, which has broadened its range of financial services in the past two years, offers opportunity to young and mid-level professionals interested in embarking on a long term career with an institution that provides attractive salary, compensation benefits and incentives. Employment opportunities are available in the following functional areas :

Finance & Accounting :
 Positions are available for both mid-level and relatively young career entrants. For mid-level candidates, 3/4 years practical experience in preparation of financial statements, tax planning & management and budgetary control is necessary. Chartered Accountants with shorter practical experience may be considered. Candidates having Masters Degree with 2-3 years experience in the similar area will be considered for other positions.

Marketing :
 Positions in marketing of financial services and products, primarily lease finance, are available for mid-level. Candidates must have a minimum of Masters degree with at least 6-7 years professional accomplishments in a financial institution.

Personnel Administration :
 Candidates possessing a Masters degree with 3-5 years of experience in personnel administration will be considered for this position.

Strategic Planning and Research :
 This function requires applicants with considerable analytical and technical abilities in providing support to senior management in strategic planning, business strategy formulation and in conducting substantive meetings of the company's Board and Management Committee. Candidates for this position must possess a Masters degree in economics, finance or business administration with 1-3 years relevant experience.

Corporate Finance and Capital Market Operation :
 Relatively new operation requires candidates with at least 5-7 years experience in corporate finance, portfolio management, capital market operation, and investment analysis. Candidates are generally expected to possess accountancy, finance and business administration background. Candidates in other disciplines must have demonstrated expertise and the required length of experience in corporate finance and capital market operation.

Programmer :
 Candidates having graduation with proficiency in programming with FoxPro for Windows will be considered for a position of Assistant Programmer. This is an entry level position offering opportunity to applicants in building a career in IT and software development.

Applications for above positions must reach GPO Box No. 3160, Dhaka not later than August 12, 1998. Each application should be accompanied by the candidate's CV (maximum 3 pages) alongwith a passport size photograph and a brief half to one page statement of the candidate's career intentions.
