Indian classical artistes to perform in city

Three eminent Indian artistes will present classical vocal and musical performance at a cultural programme organ-ised by the Indian High Commission to mark the 50th anniversary of India's Independence, reports UNB.

Ulhas Kashalkar and Arati Ankalikar, classical vocal performers and Nayan Ghosh, a sitar performer will render their presentation during the three-day cultural programme beginning on Sunday at the National Museum in the city.

The programme will begin at 7 pm everyday, said a press release yesterday.

On the first day, Ulhas Kashalkar, a representative of Gwalior and Jaipur Gharana, will give a classical vocal performance.

The sitar recital by Nayan Ghosh, one of the Indian frontranking musicians, will be presented on Monday and the classical performance of Arati Ankalikar, one of the emergent generation of eclectic singers.

on the concluding day. Complimentary passes for the three shows can be collected on any working day from the Indian High Commission. The passes will be issued on a firstcome-first-serve basis, the press release added.
