British-Bangla Film Festival from Aug 23-28

The British Council will organise a joint "British-Bangla Film Festival" in the city from August 23 to 28, reports BSS.

Addressing a press conference yesterday, Tom Cowin, Director of the council, said "The joint film festival will strengthen the cultural ties between Bangladesh and Great Britain."

Syed Hasan Imam, President of the Bangladesh Federation of Film Societies, and Syed Sujuddin Ahmed, Director General of the Department of Mass Communications, attended the conference.

Cowin said the visitors in the festival will have to pay Tk 10 (per person) for admission in each of the shows scheduled for screening at the British Council and Public Library auditoriums.

The British film titles include "A Night to Remember: Fever Pitch," Mrs Brown, "The English Patient," Local Hero, "Chariots of Fire," "Shallow Grave" and "Brassed Off."

The Bangla film titles are "Rupali Soikate," "Ghuddi," "Chhutir Ghonta," "Emiler Goyenda Bahini," "Kokhono Aasheni," "Padma Nadir Majhi," "Mukur Gaan," "Rokeya," "Ekatturer Jishu" and "Thikana."

The duration of 'A Night to Remember' is 123 minutes and it will be screened in 35 mm black and white format. The story is about the 'unsinkable' Titanic and it was told from the day in April, 1912, when the ship began her maiden voyage, until five days later, when she went (the ship) down in the middle of the Atlantic.

Steps to be taken to remove session jam: RU VC

RAJSHAHI, Aug 9: Professor Abdul Khaleque, vice-chancellor of Rajshahi University (RU) today urged the students to join their hands in a movement to make the campus free of violence and session jam, reports BSS.

Joint efforts and initiatives of all quarters have made the campus terrorism free. Now, everything is going on smoothly. This has to be maintained, he observed.

Prof Khaleque was addressing a reception of freshers who admitted to the 1997-98 session in Kazi Nazrul Islam auditorium on the campus today.

The VC said all steps will be taken to remove session jam.

Regarding the residential problem, he said a new hall after the name of Bangabandhu will be built soon for male students. Construction of TSC complex will be started soon, he added. The VC announced that two new buildings, one for arts and another for science faculty would also be built in near future.

The function, was addressed by pro-VC Professor Sayeedur Rahman Khan and treasurer Professor Abdul Fazel Haque.
