Resentment at rape of Garo girl at Gulshan

By Staff Correspondent

The city units of Hill Women's Federation (HWF) and Bahari Chhatra Parishad (PCP) in a joint statement yesterday expressed grave concern and resentment at the rape of a Garo girl at Gulshan in the city on August 3.

The government that claims to be democratic and pro-liberation has not taken any step against repression of tribal women yet," a HWF press release quoting the leaders of the organisations said.

Both the organisations also alleged that the investigation report on the abduction of Kalpana Chakma has not been made public yet.

Demanding judicial probe into the repression of the small tribal groups, the organisations expressed its determination to launch a movement if the government fails to take proper action in this regard.
