THE MAKING OF MODERN SOUTH ASIA
 Aug 23rd, 6 pm at Goethe Institut, Dhanmondi
 Chetana and the Goethe Institut have organized a lecture by Kazi Khaleed Ashraf, Architect and Author currently at the University of Pennsylvania, on the occasion of introducing the publication An Architecture of Independence: The Making of Modern South Asia. The book is part of an exhibition of the same name organized by the Architectural League of New York, which is currently touring six cities in the United States. The exhibition has been curated by Kazi Khaleed Ashraf and James Belluardo. It is the first important U.S. exposition highlighting the work of four prominent and pioneering modern architects from South Asia: Charles Correa, Balkrishna Doshi, and Achyut Karvinde of India, and Muzharul Islam of Bangladesh.

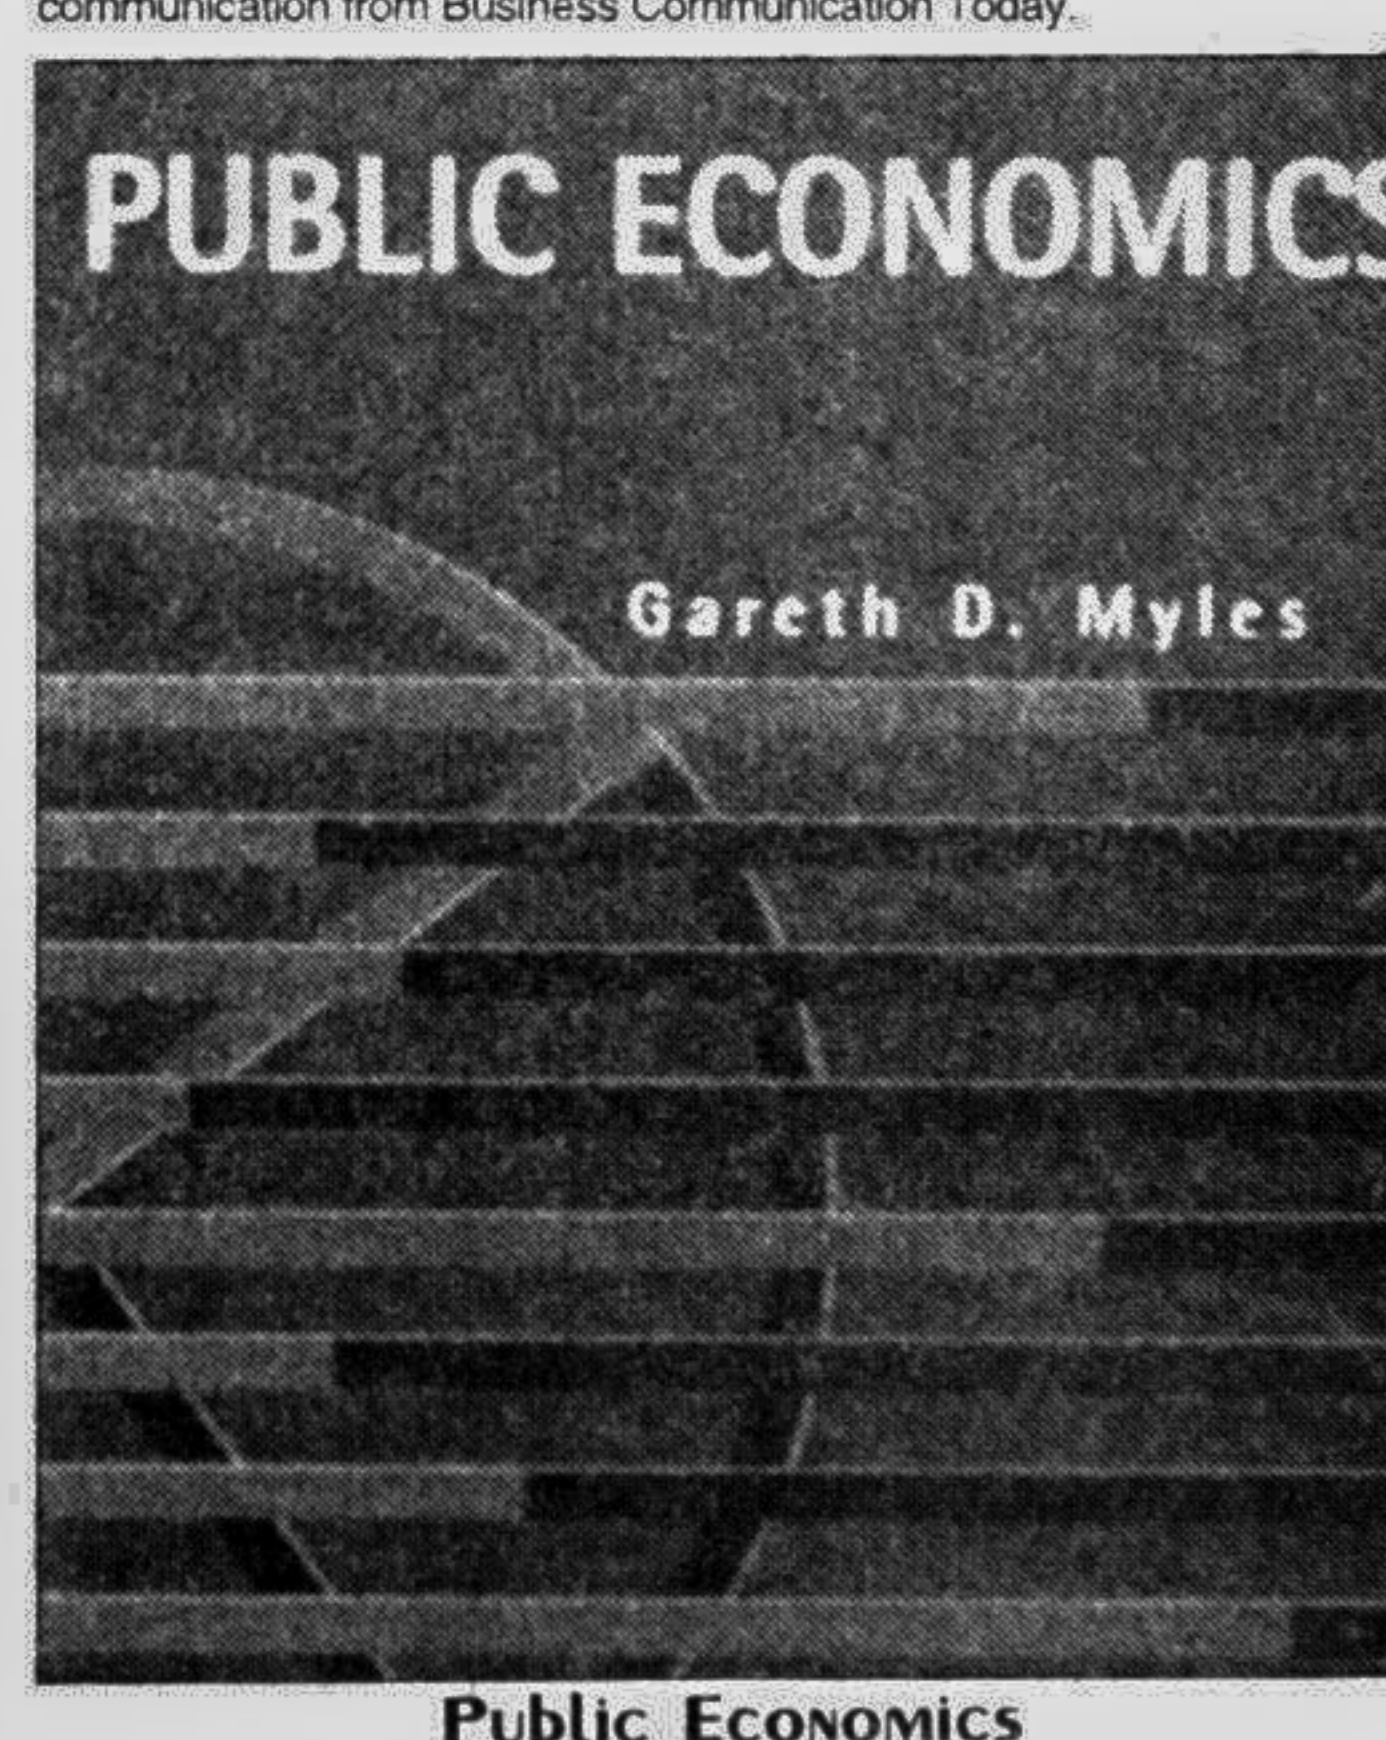

New Books

MADHUBALA
 Her Life Her Films
 Author: Khajia Akbar
 Publisher: UBSPD
 Price: Tk 210/-
 Madhubala — the very name conjures up vivid images of a love goddess possessing bewitching beauty, dazzling radiance, subtle sensuality, and, above all, a tantalising screen presence. Her "real life" histrionic performances held (and continue to hold) audiences/viewers entranced. This volume presents a fascinating panorama not only of the "real life" Madhubala but also of the "real life" Madhubala, who was an extremely compassionate and caring human being, but lived in the shadow of her dominant father.

BUSINESS COMMUNICATION TODAY
 Author: John V. Thill
 Publisher: Prentice Hall International, Inc
 Price: Tk 1075/-
 By presenting vivid insights into real-life business situations and employing a lively, conversational writing style, Business Communication Today captures the dynamics of business communication like no other textbook. It also captures the interest of students and teachers alike: In the 12 years since the first edition was published, more than 1.2 million students have learned about business communication from Business Communication Today.

PUBLIC ECONOMICS
 Author: Gareth D. Myles
 Publisher: Cambridge
 Price: Tk 700/-
 This new and up-to-date textbook provides a thorough treatment of all the central topics in public economics. Written in an accessible style and aimed squarely at senior undergraduate and graduate students, it will be invaluable to those teaching in the field and will also be a vital resource for professional economists. The book is entirely self-contained and covers, in the first section, the competitive equilibrium theory and welfare economics that underpin the analysis of policy design.

Spotlight

QUAMRUL'S WOMEN IN FOLIO
 Our tradition of liking and disliking is quite bizarre. We tend to be highly disapproving and critical about any state-run project. As if any thing that comes out of a government system in our country cannot bear any good. In cultural arena state-run programmes are frowned-upon and shrugged-off with negligence. But interestingly enough our biggest event in cultural firmament Asian Art Biennale is an undertaking by Shilpakala Academy which is a state-run institute. A handful of people at the Fine Arts department of Shilpakala making the wonders happen and that is also on a regular basis. The latest instance of their commitment to the promotion of visual arts, they have published a folio entitled Women in the Paintings of Quamrul Hassan. The folio featuring 16 works by the master painter of the 50's will be a great addition to our aesthetic taste. A folio release ceremony will be held on August 23 at the Academy gallery. From Aug 23 to 27 the folio will be available at the Academy sale's counter at 20 per cent discount.
