

5 cos bid for ROK's WC stadium

SEOUL, Aug 21: Five South Korean construction consortiums are racing to submit tenders to build Seoul's controversial main stadium for the 2002 World Cup, reports said today.

Bidders are competing fiercely for the lucrative and prestigious 156-million dollar project which will be the focus of the next World Cup competition to be hosted jointly by South Korea and Japan.

"For these contractors, who have endured financial turmoil and a decline in consortium orders this year, this project is just too big to neglect," a municipal official told the Korea Herald.

The firms leading the consortiums are Hyundai Engineering and Construction Co, Kumho Construction Co, Hyundai Industrial Development and Construction Co, Samsung Engineering and Keongnam Co.

The groups have until September 7 to submit their tenders for the 63,500-seat stadium which has been dogged by doubts since the project was conceived.

Seoul city government plans to announce the winners of the bid for the 209.5 billion won (156 million dollars) project by the end of next month. Officials will "soon" break ground at the 151,800 square metre site.

The stadium in northern Seoul will host the opening game of the competition, one of the world's biggest sporting events, as well as the semifinals.

MLS commissioner Doug Logan said two women have been assigned to officiate league games on August 29.

The move means MLS is the second major professional sports league in North America after the national basketball, to have women in charge of games.

The new MLS referees are Sandra Hunt and Nancy Lay, who were among five women who have been running the lines at MLS games this season.

Hunt, who has officiated nearly 1,000 games in an 11-year career ranging from youth to women's internationals, will be in charge of the Kansas City Wizards-Chicago Fire match.

Lay, who has been a registered referee since 1985, will be blowing the whistle in Dallas, where the hometown Burn face the New York-New Jersey Metros at the same day.

Lara, Hooper's hefty tons

LONDON, Aug 21: West Indies Test batsmen Brian Lara and Carl Hooper plundered more than 300 runs between them on a high scoring Thursday in the English county championship.

Lara smashed five sixes and 18 fours in his 158 off 154 balls to leave Warwickshire well placed to force only their fourth win of the season under his command against Northamptonshire.

Warwickshire totalled 412 for a lead of 93.

Northamptonshire then lost to second innings wickets to Ed Giddens without a run scored in the last four balls of the day.

Hooper was in an equally destructive mode for Kent as he caned the Worcestershire attack for 154 off 157 deliveries. Hooper hit three sixes and 19 fours as his side reached 323 for seven in reply to 360.

The day's top score belonged to Ian Sutcliffe with 167 as third-placed Leicestershire reached 377 for five to lead Middlesex by 70.

Leaders Surrey homed in on their ninth win in 14 games they reduced Nottinghamshire 79 for seven in their second innings, just 22 ahead.

Second-placed Lancashire maintained their title challenge after setting Durham an unlikely victory target of 473.

Centuries by Neil Fairbrother (138) and Graham Lloyd (104), followed by a quick-fire 63 from Wasim Akram, saw Lancashire compile a second innings total of 434.

Bottom county Essex faced an innings defeat by fourth-placed Gloucestershire after being forced to follow-on.

They were dismissed for just 176 in reply to 564 which included 151 from Matt Windows. Derbyshire's Kevin Dean has nine wickets to date in the match against Somerset who are 93 for five in their second innings, needing 249 to win.

Tigana tells Monaco to be careful

PARIS, Aug 21: French league table-toppers Monaco defend their 100 per cent record at Toulouse on Saturday very much aware of coach Jean Tigana's warnings about World Cup burnout, reports AFP.

Wins over promoted Lorient and Sochaux have given the club from the principality an early boost and Tigana is delighted with the form of strikers Victor Ikpeba of Nigeria and World Cup winner Thierry Henry.

But Tigana warned: "It's no surprise that those who played in the World Cup will be playing well. But they must watch out in October or November for minor injuries which could crop up as the pitches harden during the winter."

Monaco's other World Cup winners: striker David Trezeguet and goalkeeper Fabien Barthez, are currently hampered by injuries.

Trezeguet has a calf problem and Barthez pulled out of France's 2-2 international draw with Austria in Vienna on Wednesday after pulling a muscle in his upper left thigh last weekend.

Monaco are still adapting in midfield with Ludovic Giuly coming in following the sale of Ali Benatia to Bordeaux. Giuly has formed a very attacking midfield trio with Sabri Lamouchi and Franck Gava.

Second-placed Bordeaux may be hard-pushed to hold on to their 100 per cent record with coach Elie Baup having to do without defenders David Jemmal, Kodjo Alanou and Francois Grenet at home to Auxerre. Captain Michel Pavon, suspended after being sent off in their opening victory is back in action. However, Auxerre coach Guy Roux has a fully-fit squad to choose from.

Montpellier veteran Xavier Gravelaine is doubtful for the trip to his old club Marseille after suffering a heel injury. He took Thursday off and will have a late fitness test before the Stade Velodrome clash.

Third-placed Marseille are the only other side, along with Monaco and Bordeaux, to have won both their matches to date.

Montpellier's Ivory Coast striker Ibrahima Bakayoko, who had been thought to be playing his last match for the club on Saturday before a sale to English champions Arsenal, is now set to appear for the Riviera side.

Lyon striker Frederic Kanoute, who already has a goal to his name this season, has pulled out of his side's trip to promoted Lorient in southern Brittany. Centre-forward Marco Greassi is also doubtful and should be pulled out, Cameroon's Joseph-Desire Job might make his debut for the club.

Paris Saint Germain have a chance to surge up from their equal sixth spot at Strasbourg, who are relying on the same squad which lost to Nantes last week.

Strasbourg coach Pierre Mankowski said: "We have nothing to lose as all the pressure is on PSG's shoulders."

Defending champions Lens, who visit Sochaux on Sunday, are among eight clubs looking for their first victory of the season. The others are Nancy, Le Havre, Lorient, Strasbourg, Metz, Bastia and Sochaux.

Quirot's poor show

MARACAIBO, Venezuela, Aug 21: Cuba's Ana Fidelia Quirot finished an unexpected fourth place in the 800-metre run Wednesday at the Central American and Caribbean Games, the biggest surprise yet of the two-week competition, reports AP.

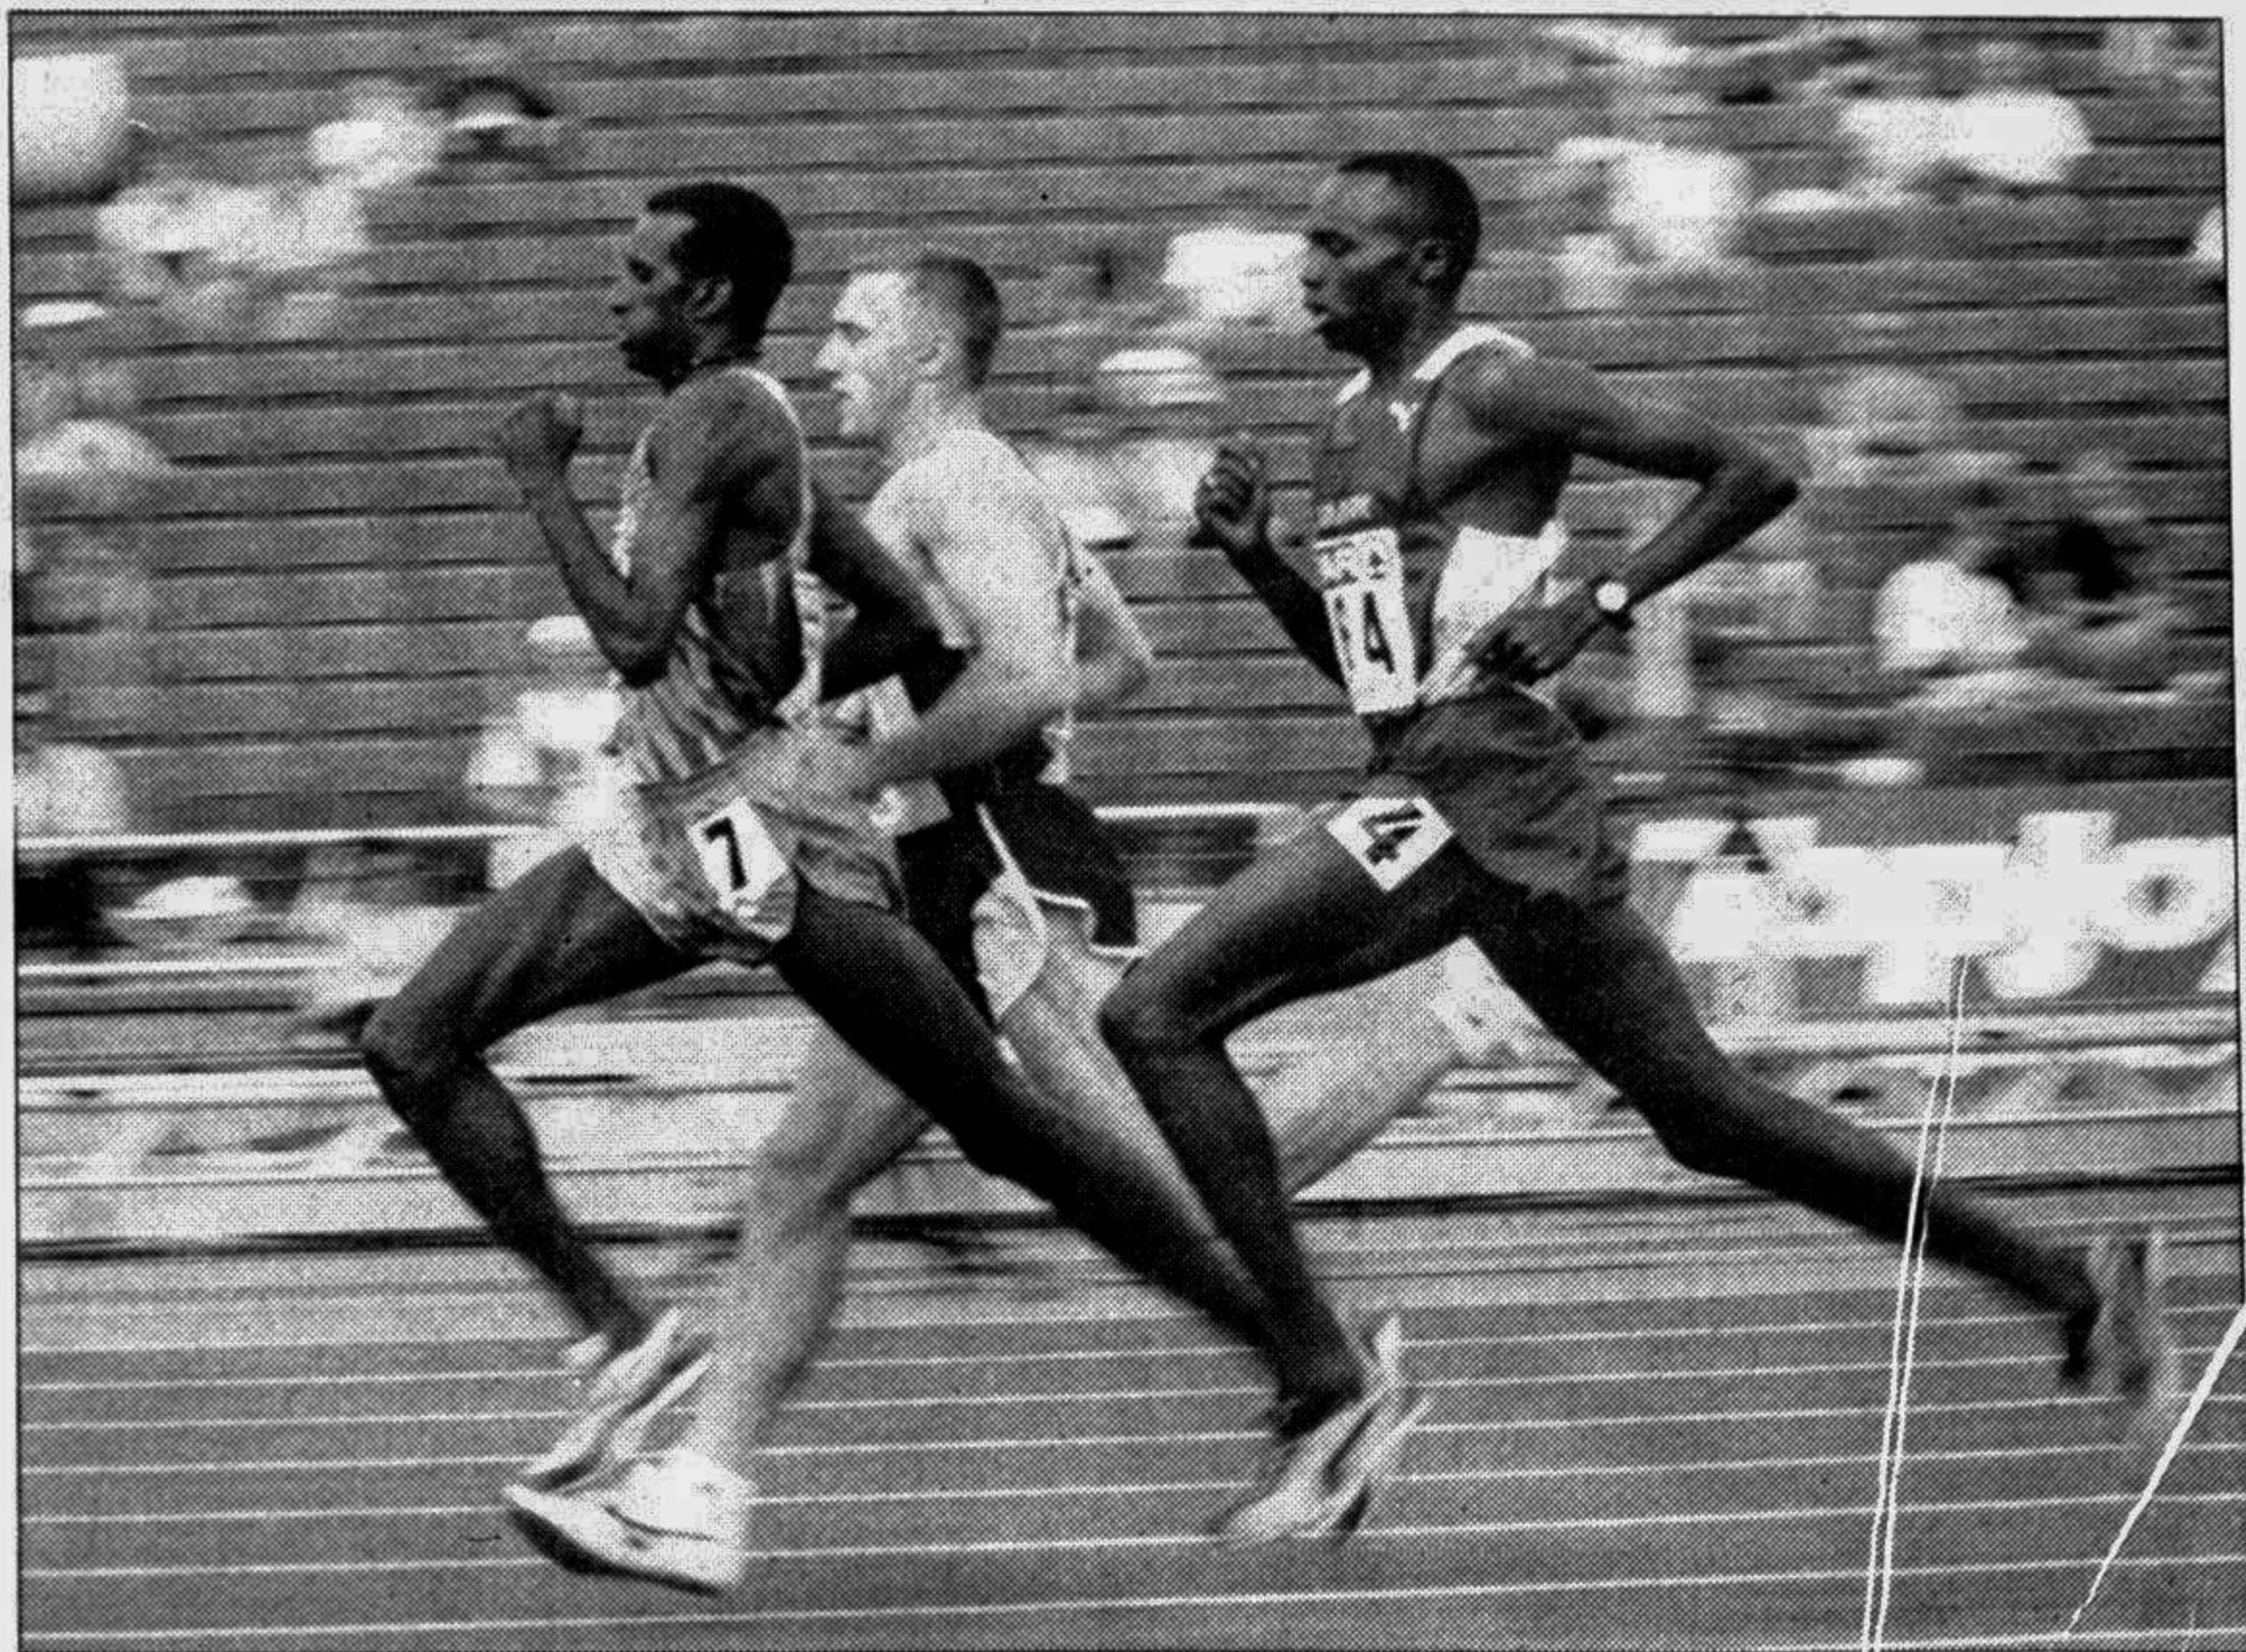

The winner of the 800 was Suriname's Letitia Vriesde, who was clocked in 2:00.24, beating Mexico's Ana Gabriela Guevara and Jamaica's Mardrea Hyman. Quirot, who lost to Vriesde at the Ponce Games in Puerto Rico five years ago, finished fourth in 2 minutes, 2.46 seconds.

Mexico maintained its lead in the walk competition with a victory by Ignacio Zamudio in the 50-kilometre walk. Registering a time of 3 hours, 58 minutes, 15 seconds, he beat Guatemala's Hugo Lopez by some 2,000 metres. It was Mexico's third walking gold medal.

Also Wednesday, Mexico's Juan Pedro Toledo won the 200 metres, beating Cuban Misael Ortiz; Olympic champion Deon Hemmings of Jamaica beat Andrea Balckett of Barbados in the women's 400-metre hurdles; Jamaica's Morgan Deinsdale captured the men's 400 hurdles; Jamaica's Beverly McDonald won the women's 200, and Cuba's Norberto Tellez won the men's 800.

Cuba has already clinched the championship in the games with a total of 135 medals, including 62 silver and 55 bronze medals.

Mexico is in second place with 49 medals and Venezuela is third with 43 medals.

Yorke becomes MU's

MANCHESTER, Aug 21: Manchester United closed their summer spending spree on Thursday with a club record 12.6 million pound (20.51 million US dollar) signing of Aston Villa striker Dwight Yorke, reports Reuters.

United said in a statement that 6.6 million pounds were payable immediately, followed by four quarterly installments of 1.5 million over the next 12 months.

The Trinidad and Tobago player later appeared at a news conference with United Manager Alex Ferguson.

"Of all the strikers who've played against us in the last few years he has the one who gave us the most problems," said Ferguson, who had chased this man since last year.

"He's got two good feet, he's brave and he's got good endurance. He can beat a man and score goals, so all the parts add up."

Yorke, who had two years on his contract at English premier league rivals Villa, signed a five-year deal.

It came before a 2200 GMT European transfer deadline, ensuring he can play in this season's Champions' League.

The 26-year-old told reporters that although he had had nine fantastic years at Villa, he was desperate to come to Manchester once he first heard of their interest and was not worried about the price tag or the competition for places.

"I've played here against some great players and one day I hoped I would be here to play with them," he said.

"But now I'm here. I don't expect to walk in without competition for places because there are so many good players here. I will be working extremely hard to get a place and then keep it," he added.

The signing topped United's transfer record set in May when they paid PSV Eindhoven 10.75 million pounds for Dutch international defender Jaap Stam.

United also signed Swedish international Jesper Blomqvist from Parma for 4.4 million pounds in July and Ferguson said the big money buys were now complete.

Estevez extends Spain's 1500-metre reign

BUDAPEST, Aug 21: Reyes Estevez kept the European 1,500 metres title in Spain for another four years on Thursday, reports Reuters.

His withering burst on the penultimate bend settled the men's final.

Estevez, bronze medalist at last year's Athens World Championships, accelerated twice on the final lap to draw the sting from defending champion Fermin Cacho.

Cacho, Spain's champion in Helsinki four years ago after capturing the 1992 Barcelona Olympic title, faded in the final straight after a rival trod on his foot. He was happy to hang on for third behind Portuguese Rui Silva.

Estevez, fastest man in Europe this year, said a slow early pace had suited him ideally.

"It was easy. I just did enough to ensure I would be in a position to win," he said after clocking three minutes 41.31 seconds.

Cacho, pointing to a torn right shoe, said somebody had stepped on his foot as he began his final sprint 100 metres from the line.

"Nevertheless I was not in top shape," he conceded. Russian Yelena Afanasyeva, silver medalist in Athens, was equally convincing in the women's 800 metres, taking the field through the bell and remorselessly increasing her lead over the final lap to win in 1:58.50.

Erki Nool won the decathlon for Estonia with a total of 8,667 points ahead of Finland's world silver medalist Eduard Hamalainen. World champion Tomas Dvorak from the Czech Republic faded to fifth.

"I cannot tell you how happy I am," Nool said. "This is the first Estonian gold medal at a European championships since 1938." World champion Annarita Sidoti, a tiny woman with a huge smile, won Italy's first gold of the championships in the women's 10 km walk. She clocked 42:49.05 ahead of teammate Erica Afridi.

"We have written another golden page in Italian athletics history," Sidoti said.

Ukrainian Vita Pavlysh made no contest of the women's shot, setting a championship record of 21.69 metres. Her worst effort of the six rounds would have won the title by nearly a metre from silver medalist Irina Korzhanenko of Russia.

Pavel Januszewski produced the race of his life in the men's 400 metres hurdles, forging through the strong head wind in the final straight to win in a Polish record 48.17 seconds.

A look-round Bundesliga

COLOGNE, Germany, Aug 21: MSV Duisburg refuse to be intimidated by the star-studded Bayern Munich line-up — and are making that fact known ahead of Saturday's second-round Bundesliga match, reports AFP.

Blue-collar Duisburg are defiant despite the fact they have not won in Bayern's Olympic stadium for more than 30 years.

"We're not going to Munich this time to allow ourselves to be taken apart," the Zebras' coach Friedhelm Funkel promised defiantly.

"Wolfsburg showed us last Saturday how to cause Bayern problems."

Duisburg captain Torsten Wohler was equally outspoken.

"We're not afraid," he said. "We felt that way in our last two games against Bayern. We dominated them completely at the end of last season at home (0-0) and in the Cup final we were absolute equals for more than 70 minutes."

Duisburg have a score to settle with Bayern after unluckily losing the German Cup to them in May, when they conceded a late Mario Basler goal.

Basler missed last week's opener because of a knee complaint but got through Thursday's training session and will take his place in the Bayern side on Saturday.

Champions Kaiserslautern will make their home debut on Saturday against Borussia Monchengladbach. A sell-out 42,000 crowd is assured with the club's passionate followers now demanding that last season's unexpected glory be followed by a similarly solid performance.

Monchengladbach positively bloomed a week ago in the absence of discarded star Stefan Effenberg, slashing Schalke down to size for a 3-0 win.

Replacement hero Toni Poster launched his way into 'gladbach fans' hearts by scoring 67 seconds into his debut.

Freiburg kicked off their return to the Bundesliga with an away win in Bochum but Saturday's task against Bayer Leverkusen will be a much taller order.

Promoted Freiburg are a low-budget, no frills side, while Leverkusen are bankrolled by the Bayer conglomerate.

Stefan Beinlich revealed himself in sterling form last week for Leverkusen as did Paulo Rink, the new man pencilled deep in coach Bertl Vogts' phone book for the German national team.

Schalke remain shell-shocked from their visit to Monchengladbach week ago and won't have things much easier at home to Stuttgart.

Four winless sides, Werder Bremen and Nuremberg and Hansa Rostock and Wolfsburg play each other this evening, while Hamburg are hoping it doesn't rain on Sunday.
