CHENNAI, Aug 25 (The Hindu/ Internet): The young man who has been the City of Joy's particular source of joy over the last two years. Saurav Ganguly, was toasted and celebrated on a grand stage - The Sportstar magazine's annual awards function on Sunday night for his spectacular streak of excellence in international cricket last year.

Ganguly, who received The Sportstar's Sportsperson of the Year (1997) award at a pleasant. well-attended function at the Park Sheraton hotel, was lauded as a model sportsman on a platform where the all-time great athlete, Milkha Singh, and two up-and- coming young sportspersons, the hockey star

Rajeev Mishra and the girls under-10 world chess champion Koneru Humpy, were also felici-

In front of a good number of his teammates and an audience that included some of the most recognisable names in sport in this city. Ganguly received the prestigious award from Raj Singh Dungarpur, president, Board of Control for Cricket in India.

Calcutta's most popular contemporary sportsperson was presented a cheque for Rs.1 lakh, a citation and a silver salver. Ganguly is The Sportstar's fourth Sportsperson of the Year awardee. The first was Sachin Tendulkar and he was followed by Viswanathan Anand and

Wise vexed

LONDON, Aug 25 (Reuters/ Internet): Suspended Chelsea captain Dennis Wise claimed on Tuesday the English FA had singled him out for special treatment.

Wise started a three-match ban last week after he was dismissed for violent conduct after tangling with Atletico Madrid's Juan Aguilera in a pre-season friendly earlier this month.

The midfielder told London's Evening Standard: "I hope the FA are treating all the players the same who got sent off in the pre-season friendlies.

"It's funny how the Spanish FA didn't hit the fella I got sent off with, but I get a three-match

"I'd already been banned for the next game in the (pre-season) tournament after the sending off so, so Saturday's suspension and the next two games mean I'm being punished further. I feel very upset.'

FA spokesman Adrian Bevington said: "Every disciplinary case is different and each one is viewed on an individual basis.

Wise remains eligible for Friday's European Super Cup clash against Real Madrid in Monaco.

"The things that have happened to me in the last few months will forever affect all parts of my life, this can never be taken away," said Mitchell at a news conference flanked by his lawyer Suja Thomas at her office Monday.

Mitchell, 32, was given a two-year suspension by the IAAF this month for testing positive for testosterone at an out of competition test April 1 at his home in Gainesville. Florida.

Thomas said that Mitchell will contest the validity of the test on two grounds.

"Experts will look at whether or not the test itself was correct." Thomas said of the two urine samples and two if the test was correct what could have caused the testosterone to epitestosteroune (another natural substance) level to increase (above the allowable rate of 6:1).
