

Draft of Wildlife Protection Regulation okayed

The draft of the Bangladesh Wildlife Protection Regulation, 1998 was approved yesterday, reports UNB.

The approval was given at a meeting of the Environment and Forest Ministry, based on the views of the representatives of departments concerned and organisations who were present.

Secretary Syed Margub Morshed presided over the meeting held at the ministry's conference room.

The draft elaborately explained the legal jurisdiction, various limitations and scope of the Regulation in proper implementation of the Bangladesh Wildlife Protection (Amendment) Act, 1974.

BC cyber centre opens today

By Staff Correspondent

People willing to have an access to the 'Information Super Highway' will now get the opportunity at the British Council (BC) in the city.

The British Council Cyber Centre, equipped with advanced facilities, opens today with a view to 'providing people with a window to wider world through internet'.

British High Commissioner David Walker and Prof Mohammad Yunus of Grameen Bank will formally inaugurate the Centre today.

Addressing a press conference yesterday, the BC Assistant Director Mahmood Noman said the Cyber Centre houses seven Pentium PCs and a multi CD-ROM tower. The Cyber Centre provides an excellent way for anyone without an internet account to try out the World Wide Web, E-mail and other internet services," he said.

"We will charge a very little amount compared to other Cyber Centres in the city. The charge is Tk 50.00 for every 30 minutes and the charges for printing are Tk 5.00 per A4 sheet," he added.

Osmani's birth anniversary today

By Staff Correspondent

The 80th anniversary of birth of Bangabir MAG Osmani, Commander-in-Chief of the Bangladesh Liberation Army, will be observed today.

Bangabir Osmani Smriti Parishad will hold a discussion meeting at Osmani Memorial Hall in the city at 4 pm to mark the day," said a press release.

Justice Mohammad Habibur Rahman will attend the discussion titled "role of leadership in nation-building" as chief guest.

Water Resources Minister Abdur Razzak, Gono Forum president Dr Kamal Hossain, former home minister Abdul Mannan, MP, and former finance minister Saifur Rahman, MP, will attend the function as special guests.

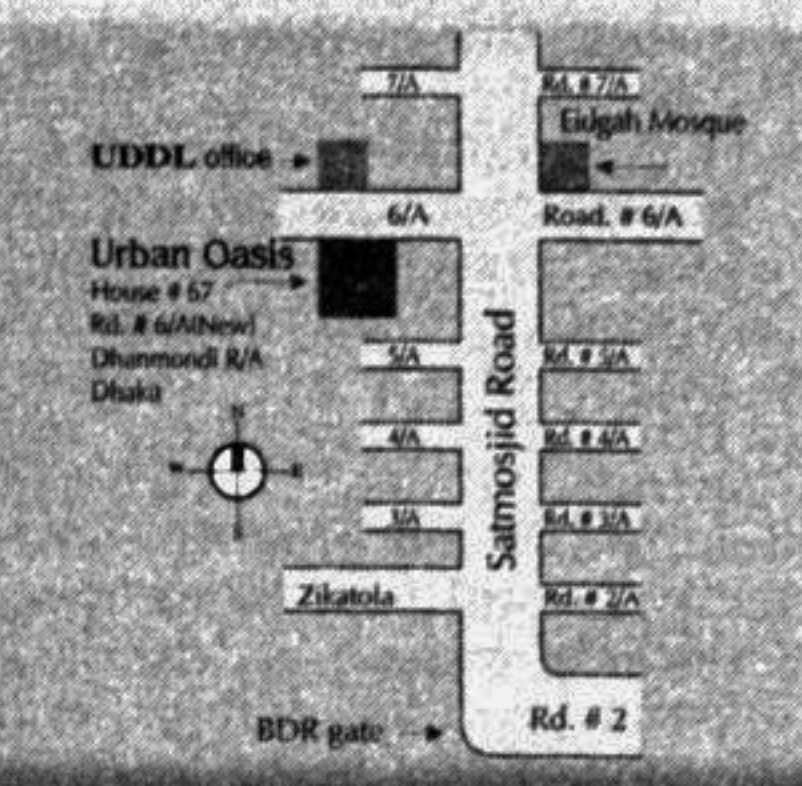

Jatiya Janata Party has chalked out elaborate programmes to celebrate the anniversary with a befitting manner.

The programmes include hoisting of the national and party flags in the morning, placing wreaths at his statue and a discussion at the Bangladesh Photojournalist Association auditorium in the afternoon.

The party earlier at a meeting yesterday decided to cut the expenditure for the festivity on the occasion and resolved to spend the money for providing relief materials to the flood-affected people.
