TORONTO, Sept 7: Liz Smith scored in the 42nd minute and Canada beat Mexico 1-0 win to earn a berth in the 1999 women's World Cup, reports AP.

WC berth

The berth is only the second for Canada, who finished 10th in the 12-team tournament in 1995. Canada become the 10th team to qualify for next year's event, which will be held in the United States.

Canada, who beat Mexico 6-0 in their only other meeting in 1994, controlled the pace of the game Sunday night but could only manage the one goal Smith brought the record Cen tennial Stadium crowd of 4,971 to its feet after heading a cross from Shannon Rosenow past goalkeeper Linnea Quinones.

Mexico twice came close to tying the game. At the 68minute mark, leading scorer Maribel Dominguez fired a shot past goalkeeper Nicole Wright, but defender Isabelle Morneau booted the ball away, forcing a corner kick. Then with nine minutes remaining, after Wright was forced to make a nice deflection of a free kick, Mexico's Regina players on Thailand's national soccer team have offered to quit following their poor performance in last week's Tiger Cup tournament in Vietnam, which included them trying to lose a match. Thai newspapers reported Sunday.

Indonesia and Thailand were fined the maximum 40,000 dollars each Friday by the ASEAN Football Federation for failing to play to win during their Aug. 31 match.

Both teams had sought to lose to avoid travelling to Hanoi from Ho Chi Minh City to play Vietnam's team. Indonesia resorted to kicking the ball into their own goal in the penultimate minute to ensure their loss.

The poor performance drew outcries from fans and fines and criticism from a number of sporting bodies. For the Thai team, the shame continued when it suffered an unexpected 3-0 defeat at the hands of Vietnam in the semifinals. Before returning to Thailand

Sunday, team captain Natee Thongsukkaew told reporters Saturday that "we realised that we failed to deliver at the tournament and have let down the Thai fans."

Natee was quoted by the newspaper The Nation as saying the team had been extremely discouraged by the criticism.

The offer to quit followed team manager Thirachai Vuthitham's resignation last week.

NEW YORK, Sept 7: Steffi Grafs comeback collapsed at the US Open on Sunday night as she lost to a Swiss teenager in the fourth round for her earliest elimination from the tournament since 1984, reports AP. Graf, the five-time US Open champion who is trying to come back from reconstructive knee surgery, was undermined by 33 unforced errors in her 6-3, 6-4 loss to Patty Schnyder. Schnyder, who was 3 years old when Graf turned pro in 1982, used her strong forehand to overpower the former topranked player who once dominated opponents with her fore-

Though Graf was seeded eighth and Schnyder 11th, the result was not that much of an upset. Graf is ranked just 26th in the world while returning from the knee surgery, and Schnyder is ranked 10th.

The match ended after 59 minutes when Graf hit a service return long. Graf marched quickly off court, while Schnyder celebrated and then signed autographs.

Schnyder, 19, who has won five tournaments this year, broke Graf's serve early in the first set and took advantage of 14 unforced errors by Graf in the first seven games. Graf, who began the match with tape around her right wrist, removed the tape after falling behind 5-

Schnyder took a 2-1 lead in the second set with another service break. Graf immediately broke back, and the set was tied 4-4 until Schnyder broke again in the ninth game. She then held serve for the victory.

Graf, who has won 21 Grand Slam tournament singles titles and held the No 1 ranking for a record 374 weeks, has been trying to work back into top form after left knee surgery last year.

She skipped the US Open following the surgery last year, but had not been eliminated this early since losing in the first round as a 15-year-old in 1984. While Graf was defeated, sevadvanced to the quarterfinals. Top-seeded Martina Hingis and No 6 Monica Seles advanced toward a battle in the women's quarterfinals, despite struggling in fourth-round matches. Also winning was No Jana Novotna. Jan-Michael Gambill and Geoff Grant came within a few points of glory Sunday, but within a span of 14 minutes both were losers — joining most

The men lost another seeded player when No 5 Richard Krajicek withdrew in the second set of his match against Thomas Johansson with tendinitis in his left knee. The winners included NO 7 Alex Corretja, No 11 Yevgeny Kafelnikov and No 13 Tim Henman. The top half of the men's draw kicks into high gear Monday when top seed Sampras takes on Russian Marat Safin. Andre Agassi meets Karol Kucera and defending champion Patrick Rafter takes on the volatile Goran Ivanisevic. Gambill, expected to make his Davis Cup debut for the United States later this month, lost 6-2, 3-6, 3-6, 6-3, 7-6 to French Open champion Carlos Moya in a three-hour match in which both players tossed rackets in frustration.
