Foreign aid pledges now about $210m

With India's offer of sending 20,000 metric tons of foodgrains to Bangladesh in response to appeal, the commitments, pledges and assurances made by friendly countries, multilateral agencies, humanitarian organisations and individuals to flood relief and rehabilitation, have risen to about 210 million US dollars, reports BSS.

The amount includes cash and value of relief materials and foodgrains.

Meanwhile Switzerland which has already announced over 8 lakh US dollars as assistance to Bangladesh in response to the appeal, has decided to raise an additional 3 million Swiss franc (2.15 million US dollars) towards flood relief and rehabilitation activities. External Publicity Wing (EPW) of the Ministry of Foreign Affairs (MOFA) said.

Days back the authorities received commitment of 7.28 lakh tons of food from Australia, France, Italy, the United States and the WFP, with the offer of foodgrains from India and additional foodgrains likely to be made available by WFP, the total foodgrains commitment now stands at 8,72,400 metric tons of foodgrains.

Besides WFP and USA, major donors that committed assistance included Asian Development Bank, the UN agencies, European Union and Kuwait.

30 countries and international agencies and others till now have responded to appeals for 879.5 million dollars in cash and kind including 1.38 million tons of foodgrains, while many are expected to come forward with more aid.

The Rome based IFAD (International Fund for Agricultural Development) which discussed the consequences of natural calamity in Bangladesh in a meeting of the executive board has already sent the country portfolio manager here to examine how the UN body could respond to the needs arising out of flood. IFAD President Fawzi H Al-Sultan assured Bangladesh Ambassador to Italy, Muhammad Zamir of extending assistance after working out a strategy with authorities in Dhaka. EPW said.

Parliamentarian of Japan Sakurai arrives

Shin Sakurai, a veteran Japanese parliamentarian and an old friend of Bangladesh, arrived in the city yesterday on a three-day visit to see the extent of damage caused by the current devastating floods, reports BSS.

During his visit, the Dietman is scheduled to visit some flood affected areas, Bangabandhu Bridge, Serajganj embankment and the proposed site of the Ganges multipurpose barrage project.

Sakurai will pay a courtesy call on the Prime Minister and hold discussions with ministers for foreign affairs, water resources, finance and telecommunications, his itinerary said.

Meanwhile, Japanese Embassy sources said Tokyo is sending a team later this month to assess the devastation caused by the floods. The team, besides assessing the damage, will recommend both immediate needs and post flood rehabilitation requirements.
