C'wealth hockey Controversy mars hosts' win

KUALA LUMPUR, Sept 17: Scottish umpire David Wallis was manhandled by furious Canadian players after hosts Malaysia entered the Commonwealth Games hockey semifinal with a controversial 2-1 win here today, reports

As Canadian and Malaysian players had to be kept apart angry Malaysian fans pelted the Canadians with bottles and

The incident-packed game saw Malaysia join England in the semifinals from Group B with eight points each.

Wallis gave Malaysia the advantage inside the Canadian circle five minutes from the end - instead of pulling them for an infringement — which allowed Calvin Fernandez to score the match-winner with a powerful reverse flick.

Wallis, who rejected Canadian pleas to award them a free hit. was pushed around after the final whistle before Games officials whisked him off the field.

The hosts take the top spot in the group with a better goal difference than England, and now await the second-placed team in Group A in Saturday's semifinal.

Canada, who began the match level with Malaysia on five points and needed only a draw to qualify because of a superior goal difference, saw their hopes evaporate in the last five minutes.

"That was a free hit for us, instead we saw the ball in the net," an angry Canadian coach Shiaz Virji said.

The umpiring was okay for most of the match, but what is the use if they make mistakes in the crucial stages of the Virii said he did not see his players push the umpire after the game, but blamed the ground security for allowing cans to be thrown at his players from the stands.

"There were no security men around, but when I asked some volunteers to protect my players, they just laughed," Virji

Sussex want to extend Bevan's contract

LONDON, Sept 17: Australian Test star Michael Bevan has been offered a new two-year deal by English county Sussex which would keep him there until 2001, the club said today, reports AFP.

Sussex's director of cricket Dave Gilbert expects an agreement with vice-captain Bevan, who is currently at the Commonwealth Games with Australia, to be finalised before the end of the winter.

Gilbert added: "Michael has really enjoyed it with us and Sussex is where he is looking to make a commitment."

Bevan is a frontline batsman who also bowls left-arm leg spin. Australia have mainly used him as a one-day special-

Wall of Fame in pipeline

KUALA LUMPUR, Sept 17: Australian swimmer Ian Thorpe's name is likely to be up on a "wall of fame" in Kuala Lumpur's new Bukit Jalil Stadium, built for the 1998 Commonwealth Games, reports AP.

Athletes who set world or Commonwealth records at the 10-day Games may have their names engraved on honour plaques for the stadium wall, the chief organiser of the Games, Hashim Mohammad Ali, said Thursday.

But that doesn't matter, said a Malaysian newspaper, because Thursday's 100-metre race in Bukit Jalil stadium would be the fastest ever on

HURT BOXER

Australian middleweight hope Danny Green has been forced to withdrew from the Commonwealth Games boxing after failing to recover from a hand injury.

Green hurt his hand in winning a decision against Nauruan Y'Vain Agir on Monday. He was scheduled to fight Thursday in the quarterfinals.

Team manager George Turner said the boxer was unaware of the extent of the injury immediately after Monday's fight.

"Unfortunately he sustained a crack in a bone in his hand, so even though he won his bout he was unable to continue in the competition," team doctor Brian Sando said.
