AACAB arranges transportation of relief goods from overseas free of charge

The Association of Air Cargo Agents of Bangladesh (AACAB) has undertaken a venture to bring relief goods into the country from overseas during this time of extreme necessity, says a press release.

These relief goods will be carried free of charge from their respective countries into Bangladesh by various airlines operating out of Dhaka. Those airlines who have immediately committed their generous support are: Gulf Air and British Airways and several others are considering to join hands shortly. These goods will be consigned directly to the Prime Minister's Relief Fund. AACAB has also got in touch with the Prime Minister's Secretariat which has ensured that all the authorities involved in transporting these goods from the airport to the distribution point will expedite handling procedures.

This privilege shall, however, be applicable only to those items that will qualify as relief goods, for example, dry food, medicine, water purification tablets, tents, etc.

AACAB appeals to all the organisations and communities at home and abroad to source relief goods from overseas. For details of this operation interested parties should contact the AACAB office. Their hot line for this purpose is: 9881663 (telephone) and 9881664 (fax) and the person in-charge is Ataul Haque.

AACAB members are also contacting their overseas partners to participate in this effort by sending relief goods from their respective countries.

Death anniversary of Shaheed Rimu today

By DU Correspondent
The fifth death anniversary of Shaheed Zubair Chowdhury Rimu will be observed today.

He was the leader of the Bangladesh Chhatra Maitri (BCM) Rajshahi University unit. Zubair was killed by Jamaat-Shibir's activists at the Sher-e-Bangla Hall of Rajshahi University in 1993.

The BCM activists will bring out a procession today from the Dhaka University towards the Central Shaheed Minar in the morning wearing black badges. The BCM will place floral wreaths at the Shaheed Minar to pay tribute to the Shaheed Rimu.
