Romanian football's clear and present danger

BUCHAREST, Sept 22 (Reuters): Rising violence amongst Romanian soccer fans has spawned a new phenomenon in the country's post-communist sport — the gun-carrying soccer

No longer content to confine their rage to smashing buses and shop windows or setting fire to stadium seats, supporters have turned their fury towards the teams.

The players have reacted quickly and carrying a firearm is now viewed almost as a standard precaution by some of the First Division's more celebrated — and targetted — names.

"Our players now bring pistols to training sessions and matches because they are afraid of unpredictable behaviour by fans." the Pro Sport daily wrote recently.

In the Black Sea port of Constanta, after the local side were beaten 1-0 by National Bucharest, a frenzied fan began punching National's Stelian Carabas near the dressingroom.

The assault came to an abrupt and when teammate Gheorghe Butolu thrust a 9mm pistol into the attacker's face. "I had the gun with me because I was sure that things would get worse," Butoiu said "Unfortunately, I was right." The Romanian soccer feder ation (FRF) has decided not to become involved in the issue. "The FRF has no responsibility in this matter," the federation's general secretary Adalbert Kassai said.

"Owning a gun is a personal issue for every individual in this country. A soccer player is free to defend his integrity in whatever way he feels is best."

Steaua Bucharest coach Mihai Stoichita said he always has his gun at hand. "After violent supporters

Since Dinamo striker Loan Vladoiu's house was ransacked by thieves a year ago, he has kept several guns - and three imposing guard dogs - at his home.

"The danger is becoming greater in Bucharest," he said "So, I have to be very careful."

Some players said the biggest threat came not from fans disgruntled at a club's poor form but from those convinced that star players returning from lucrative stints abroad were easy targets for extorting money

Refusing to give money could become dangerous," said National team player Constantin Galca, of Spanish club Espanyol. "When you refuse, frustrated supporters spit at you and hurl abuse."

Hopman Cup Spain will be at full strength

PERTH, Australia, Sept 23: The Spanish armada for the Hopman Cup mixed teams ten-nis tournament here in January will have big guns Carlos Moya and Arantxa Sanchez-Vicario in its arsenal, organisers said today, reports AFP.

Moya, ranked fifth in the world, and Sanchez-Vicario ranked fourth, would be attempting to regain the cup they last won in the summer of 1990.

Sanchez-Vicario teamed then to beat Americans John McEnroe and Pan Shriver in the final.

The Hopman Cup, a warm up event to the first Grand Slam of the year, the Australian Open was won this year by Karol Kucera and Karina Habsudova of the Slovak Republic.

Kucera (sixth) and Habsudova (75th) will be under heavy pressure to retain the title.

'98 China Cup gymnastics begins today

TIANJIN, Sept 23: The 1998 China Cup international gymnastics tournament is to kick off tomorrow here in the Tianjin Sports Centre, the stadium to host next year's World Championships, reports Xinhua.

A total of 194 gymnasts from 17 countries will participate in the annual event which, in the viewpoint of the organisers. will serve as a rehearsal to gain experiences in competition organisation and reception for the 1999 Worlds.

The participating gymnasts are from Australia, Belarus, Bulgaria, Canada, Denmark, DPR Korea, France, Germany, Hungary, Japan, Norway, Romania, Sweden, Switzerland, Thailand, the United States and host China

"The tournament will lay sound foundations for the successful holding of the 1999 World Gymnastics Championships," said Zhang Faqiang. president of the Chinese Gymnastics Association.

However, the event, which spreads over two days with the team and individual all-round competitions on September 24 and ten apparatus finals on September 25, could hardly claim to be a showcase of the world's best with no Russians present and other participating countries apparently having not dispatched their first-string

The top Chinese men's gymnast, world and World Cup champion Zhang Jinjing who won five titles in the previous edition, is not to show up as he was instead attending an exhibition in Belgium together with woman gymnast Meng Fei.

China will send three teams to the competitions: China A. headlined by Goodwill Games pommel horse champion Huang Xu and World Cup beam champion Liu Xuan, China B, led by World Cup double champion in floor and bars Li Xiaopeng, and the local Tianjin team.

The next year's worlds is scheduled on October 8-16 in Tianjin, 120 kilometres from the capital of Beijing.

No tobacco ads down under by 2006

CANBERRA, Sept 23: All to-bacco sponsorship for international sporting events held in Australia will be phased out by 2006, federal Health Minister Michael Wooldrid ge announced Tuesday, reports AP.

Tobacco advertising and sponsorship have been banned for domestic sporting competitions since 1992, but the Tobacco Advertising Prohibition Act permitter! the minister for health to grant exemptions if an event would be otherwise lost to Aust ralia.

Only a handful of events qualify, i acluding the Australian Formula One Grand Prix in Melbourne, the Australian Motorcycle Grand Prix at Phillip Island, the Australian Iridy Car Championship on the Cold Coast and the Australian Ladies Masters golf tournai nent.

Woo ldridge said he was confident Australia would keep those events as organisers had enough warning to secure alternative sponsorship, just as crick et and rugby league success fully managed the transi-

'Australians are great fans of motor sports and women's go if and we'll enjoy these major in ternational events more once they are free of tobacco spons orship," Wooldridge said.

While I have been able to toughen the restrictions in recent years on signage and other promotional activities and reduce the number of events given exemption, I am uncomfortable with the very concept of exemption in the first place."

Wooldridge said he had productive discussions and negotiations with Formula One and motorcycle grand prix chiefs Bernie Ecclestone and Max Mosley and they had assured him that automotive events would not be jeopardised by the phasing out of tobacco sponsor-

Mosley keeps IFB belt

NEW YORK, Sept 23: "Sugar" Shane Mosley of the United States knocked down Eduardo Morales of Argentina twice and stopped him at 2:06 of the fifth round Tuesday night to retain the IBF lightweight title, reports AP

Mosley, showing tremendous hand speed and quick intelligent movement, dominated the top-ranked Morales from the outset. The champion, who weighed 61 kilos (135 pounds). knocked down Morales, 60.7 kilos (134 pounds), with a stiff left jab and two hooks to the body in the third round. The challenger got up at the count of five.

Mosley's victory followed a unanimous decision by Angel Manfredy over fellow American John Brown in defense of the super featherweight title of the fringe WBU.

In the fifth round, Mosley, 29-0 with 27 knockouts, battered Morales with head punches and then knocked him down with a right hand. Morales rose at six but, after a flurry of punches, referee Arthur Mercante Jr stopped the bout at
