The Golden Collection

(Classical)
Hari Prasad Chaurasia
Price: Tk 500/-
Hari Prasad Chaurasia is one of the most popular performers in the history of Indian Classical Music. He is singularly responsible for spreading the inner message of Indian raga music — the magical power of meditative swara — the world over. Perhaps the only musician who had achieved this magical quality before him was Bismillah Khan.

New Books

I CAN BUT WHY SHOULD I GO
Author: Sakil Chattopadhyay
Publisher: Sahitya Akademi
Price: Tk 90/-
I Can, But Why Should I Go received the Sahitya Akademi Award in 1983. It is remarkable for its mellow contemplation on man and nature, search for meaning in human existence and refined poetic language. Translated by noted poet Jayanta Mahapatra, the poems in this collection have tried to capture the subtle nuances of the Bengali original.

LOOSE WOMEN, LECHEROUS MEN
Author: Linda Lemoncheck
Publisher: Oxford
Price: Tk 1250/-
Writing in a clear, energetic style and considering material from a wide range of contemporary sources, including analytic philosophy, feminist ethics, gender theory, psychology, and popular treatments of sex and sexuality, LeMoncheck generates a wealth of insight through use of a careful dialectic, viewing women's sexuality as a function of both oppressive gender politics and liberating sexual exploration.

GEORGE D. PAINTER
"It is not only a work of almost incredible devotion, patience and learning but one of the great English biographies of any time."
Chelmer

MARCEL PROUST: A BIOGRAPHY
Author: George D. Painter
Publisher: Pimlico
Price: Tk 1230/-
It is both a portrait of the artist and a discovery of the aesthetic by which the portrait is painted, and it was to have a seminal influence on twentieth-century literature. George Painter's work has brilliantly captured the life of the great writer in a tour de force of scholarly research and literary craft.

Available at Pathak Samabesh, Aziz Market, Shahbagh, Ph: 9662766

THE PLAYS
Desire Under the Elms/Strange Interlude/Mourning Becomes Electra
Author: Eugene O'Neill
Publisher: Vintage International
Price: Tk 645/-
With Olympian ambition and an ear that captured both the cadences of classical tragedy and the rhythm of our common speech, Eugene O'Neill lent a unique grandeur to the American theater. His work is that of a master playwright at the height of his accomplishment, exploring the limits of the human predicament even as he sounds the depths of his audiences' hearts.
