BCDJC report says Number of young women in journalism on the rise

The number of young women in journalism has substantially increased in recent days reflecting a hope of rallying more women in the profession, reports UNB.

This encouraging picture was revealed at the closing ceremony of National Colloquiums of Women in Journalism held at a hotel in the city yesterday.

Bangladesh Centre for Development Journalism and Communication (BCDJC), prepared a preliminary report of the status of women in journalism from its four National Colloquiums of Women in Journalism held recently.

It showed that 39 per cent of the women in journalism belong to the age group of 20 plus, 30 per cent 30 plus, 15 per cent 40 plus and only 6 per cent in the 50 plus category.

The study, however, found that most of the 95 women, working in 20 newspapers, periodicals and news agencies, are just contributors.

Among the 20 national dailies there is only one shift in-charge, one feature editor and a few editorial assistants. Although there are two assistant editors in two dailies, they are not treated properly in the editorial team of the newspapers, the report said.

Speaking as chief guest at the function Swedish Ambassador in Dhaka, Anders Johnson said women in journalism has a crucial role to play in highlighting views from new perspectives, in creating awareness and changing attitude towards country's overall development.

The ultimate aim of development is to enlarge people's choices and that basic human values and rights are for everybody," the Swedish Ambassador said.

He hoped that new information and communication technologies can encourage increased participation and equal rights for all in the country.

Editor of Bangladesh Observer Iqbal Sobhan Chowdhury and Editor of Financial Express A H M Moazzem Hossain also addressed the function as special guests.

Milad mahfil at DU on PM's birthday

A large number of teachers, students and officials of the Dhaka University yesterday attended a milad mahfil arranged on the occasion of the 52nd birthday of Prime Minister Sheikh Hasina, reports BSS.

Bangladesh Chhatra League (BCL) National Executive Committee organised the milad mahfil at the Central Mosque of the university.

BCL president Enamul Haque Shamim, general secretary Ishaque Ali Khan Panna, Dhaka University unit president Bahadur Bapary, among others, attended the milad.

Later, BCL workers fed the poor children residing near the campus area.
