WHO top official lauds Dhaka's progress in health sector

Dr Gro Harlem Brundtland, Director General of World Health Organisation (WHO) yesterday said in Geneva that Bangladesh could prevent large scale catastrophe in the aftermath of floods due to its efficient disaster management system, reports BSS.

"Bangladesh has made remarkable progress in the areas of health and development," Dr Brundtland, who is a former prime minister of Norway, observed this while talking to Bangladesh ambassador to the United Nations office in Geneva Dr Iftekhar Ahmed Chowdhury She said the country also had "a very efficient disaster management system.

The combination of these two factors have "prevented any large scale catastrophe in the aftermath of the current floods," she told Dr Chowdhury when he called on her at the WHO headquarters.

The Bangladesh ambassador apprised Dr Brundtland of the relief operations being carried out in the country under the personal supervision of Prime Minister Sheikh Hasina.

Pandemonium at AL reception in NY

Two senior Awami League presidium members, Abdus Samad Azad and Amir Hossain Amu, were silent witnesses to a fist-fight and pandemonium at a meeting on Sunday in New York, UNB reports from New

The two leaders who are now in New York to take part in the current session of the UN General Assembly were present at a reception organised by the party's US chapter.

The meeting arranged in honour of the two visiting party leaders, ended with police entering the hall and taking a local Awami League leader into custody after pandemonium broke out between rival factions. He was later released

A few chairs were tossed and some damage was done to the meeting room.

Factional rifts within the US chapter of Awami League has in the past caused serious disruptions at organisational meetings. However, this was the first time such a scuffle broke out in the presence of national leaders.

Amir Hossain Amu said he had nothing to say. "I am not interested in the subject," he told UNB after attending a SAARC ministerial meeting at the United Nations. Abdus Samad Azad also had a similar reaction. The Bangladesh Foreign Minister had to swallow the ignominy to witness the scuffle, despite his repeated requests for calm.

Azad told journalists that he had no comments. "What do you want me to say?" he snapped when a correspondent insisted him on commenting. A Bangla weekly in New York later reported that the Foreign Minister had singled out two local Awami League leaders. Nurul Islam Onu and Farasat Ali, for masterminding the incident. A member of the Foreign Minister's entourage at the United Nations, however, told UNB that it was unlikely that Azad had made any such comment. Onu was not present at the Sunday meeting.
