Legal action demanded against rapists at JU

By Staff Correspondent
Shata Nagorik Committee (100 citizens' organisation) demanded legal proceedings against the rapists of some students of the Jahangirnagar University, says a press release.
'University authorities should institute case against these persons in proper courts on charges of oppression on women,' the statement said.
They alleged that the university authorities seemed active to save the culprits. The action the university authorities had taken in the face of public demand is inadequate considering the magnitude of offence because of the partisan character of the authorities, the citizens said in the statement.
