PARIS. Oct 2 (Reuters/Internet) Paris St Germain desperately need a victory against RC Lens in their

French league clash at Parc des Princes on Sunday after their worst showing in Europe in more than 10 years. PSG, Cup Winners' Cup champions in 1996 and finalists last year, went out in the first round to Israeli minnows Maccabi Haifa on Thursday. Coach Alain Giresse and his players, their ability to react to a poor performance with grit and determination in the next cast into doubt, will be glad of another chance just three days later to try to make amends.

The last time PSG won, on September 20, they were at home to Monaco only three days after the first leg against Maccabi, a poor and ultimately decisive 1-1 draw.

PSG beat Monaco 1-0, but they lost 1-0 at bottom club Sochaux in their last league game a week ago before the trip

Heath ousts Nicol

CAIRO, Oct 2: Peter Nicol, the world number one and reigning champion, was eliminated from the Al-Ahram international championships here on Thursday night when he was beaten in a 50-minute semifinal by his Scottish compatriot Martin Heath, reports AFP.

Heath won 15-9, 15-5, 15-11. The two Scots were born within less than six months of each other and have been rivals since they were boys. Nicol has always had the better of Heath and the last time he lost to him was 12 years ago, when they Maccabi's Israeli international defender Alon Harazi summed up the match when he said: This is a victory for heart over skill."

Giresse was unavailable for comment after the match and PSG executive president Charles Bietry, asked whether the coach would still be in the job on Sunday, said: "I'm not asserting nor confirming anything.

"We have to find out why we were eliminated. It's a huge defeat, it's unforgiveable."

PSG went five seasons in a row from 1993 to 1997 reaching the semifinals in European competition and if ever they suffered a bad result they were able to bounce back.

Last season, they were penalised with a 3-0 defeat against Steaua Bucharest for fielding a suspended player in the away leg of their European Cup second preliminary round

But, with Brazilians Rai and Leonardo at the hub, they crushed the Romanians 5-0 in the second leg to go through to the Champions' League. Striker Nicolas Ouedec, who scored PSG's first equaliser. said: "We had done the hardest part by coming back twice in the score in the second half. "It's incredible to concede a third goal like that (in injury time). We should have been more lucid and played with our heads.

PSG, who need some of the spirit and cool heads Lens have shown in the Champions' League, hope German Christian Woerns will be fit to return after missing the match in Haifa through injury to bolster a defence lacking a leader.

They will be without Nigerian playmaker Augustine Okocha, on African Nations Cup qualifying duty, but this may be less of a loss since the World Cup star has been in poor form since signing for PSG in ting Spaniard Felix Mantilla 7-6, 7-5 to reach the semifinals of the Grand Slam Cup on Thursday, reports Reuters.

Rios, the highest ranked player in the men's draw of the tournament for the best performers in the year's four Grand Slams, now faces an appetising clash with hard-hitting Australian Mark Philippoussis for a place in Sunday's final.

Chilean Rios, a finalist at the Australian Open last January, needed a tie break, which he took 7-2, to claim the first

French Open semifinalist Mantilla kept fighting in the second set until Rios used a rare backhand volley on match

Earlier, Philippoussis reliect on his heavy artillery to down Swede Jonas Bjorkman, firing 13 aces on his way to a 4-6, 7-6, 6-1 quarterfinal victory.

Bjorkman countered the US Open finalist's missiles with brilliant returns to win the first set but Philippoussis moved up a gear in the second, forcing a tiebreak which he took 7-1 with an ace on set point.

From then on, the hard-hitting Australian was in a class of his own, firing winners almost at will to open up a 4-0 lead in the decisive set before seeing Bjorkman hit a forehand into the net on match point.

"It was an up and down match," said Philippoussis, "I made a slow start and he played good returns to break me. Towards the end, I was playing really well."

For the first time since the Grand Slam Cup was created in 1990, women are also competing and there was a surprise on Thursday with France's Nathalie Tauziat dumping out US Open champion Lindsay Davenport. Wimbledon finalist Tauziat,
