Teacher held in connection with acid throwing

BHOLA, Oct 14: A school teacher was arrested on charge of his alleged involvement in spraying acid on a housewife and her 5-year-old child in Charfashon thana here Monday, reports APB.
 Abul Bashar was nabbed Tuesday upon filing of a case against 13 people by brother-in-law of the victim, Jahanara Begum, 38, under Women and Children Repression Act.
 Police said Jahanara and her daughter, Shiria, sustained serious burn injuries when a gang of 12-13 miscreants threw acid on them at village Charleolin at about 10 pm.
 They were admitted to sadar hospital. Police said a land dispute might be the reason behind the incident.

Aman seedling shortage 5000 acres to stay fallow this season in Rajshahi

RAJSHAH, Oct 14: Some 5,000 acres of land is likely to remain fallow this season in the district due to shortage of aman seedlings, reports APB.
 However, some farmers have planted seedlings of aman paddy on 100 hectares of land, although the time for planting has already passed.
 According to sources concerned, it would not be possible for farmers to plant adequate number of seedlings during the current season owing to the shortage caused by the floods.
 Agricultural Extension Department (AED) is considering measures to help farmers to cultivate other crops in the 5,000 hectares of land, the sources said.
