ADB to expedite finance for projects in Bangladesh

Asian Development Bank (ADB) Vice-President Myoung-Ho Shin yesterday said ADB would expedite financing its various projects here so that Bangladesh could recoup its massive losses, caused by the devastating flood, reports BSS.

Shin, who called on Prime Minister Sheikh Hasina at her Ganobhaban official residence yesterday evening, lauded the leadership of the Prime Minister for combating the flood with all sincerity and timely measures.

Shin said they are particularly moved to see the success of the government in minimising the loss of life and property despite the alarming situation arising out of the worst ever flood in the country.

While suggesting some reform measures, the ADB Vice-President said that his bank is keen to increase investment in the energy sector. He particularly showed keen interest in and praised the development achieved in the railway sector.

Prime Minister Sheikh Hasina told the ADB vice-president that because of its geographical location Bangladesh would have survive by accepting such natural calamities and disasters. "We should be ready to take precautions and alert our people timely so that losses can be minimised," she said.

The Prime Minister said to combat such natural calamities her government had taken up three categories of schemes for heavy cyclone and flood prone areas, for moderate calamity prone areas and for the areas which are out of such danger.

Charity concert

Students of Dhaka University will organise an open air charity concert at 2 pm today at BAF Shaheen School and College ground, reports UNB.

The proceeds of the concert will be donated for the post-flood rehabilitation programme.
