Brazilian critics had questioned the value of the match which pitted the World Cup runners-up against a team that had not played a full international for nearly a year and whose top striker was missing because he reportedly could not get a visa in time.

Ecuador, who have never qualified for the World Cup and never beaten Brazil, had not played since losing 5-3 to Uruguay in their last qualifying match for the 1998 World Cup last November.

Luxemburgo, who took over following the World Cup after Mario Zagallo was sacked fielded a largely experimental team which included only three survivors from the World Cup squad - full back Cafu, mid fielder Rivaldo and striker Denilson.

Brazil took early control and converted two of the half dozen clearcut chances they created in the first half.

Marcelinho opened the scoring in the 22nd minute finishing off an excellent move that involved Flavio Conceicao, Elber and Denilson.

Favourites win but struggle

LONDON, Oct 15 (Reuters/AP): World Champions France and European champions Germany

given the fright of their lives by unrated Andorra and Moldova before emerging victorious from their European Championship qualifiers on Wednesday.

France, who were expected to score a hatful against their neighbouring part-timers, managed only a 2-0 win at the Stade de France, their first match back in the stadium where they defeated Brazil to lift the World Cup in July.

They were forced to wait until the 53rd minute before Vincent Candela opened the scoring in their Group Four match, and even though Youri Djorkaeff added a second eight minutes later, the moral victory was Andorra's if not the points. which moved France up to second behind Ukraine.

Germany, who started the defence of their European title with a shock 1-0 Group three defeat in Turkey on Saturday. were given another scare when they went behind after only eight minutes to Moldova - before re-asserting the natural order of things with a 3-1 win. Two goals from Ulf Kirsten and another from Oliver Bierhoff gave Germany victory and they moved up from bottom to third in their section.

England, another big name who have made an indifferent start to the qualifiers, again failed to impress despite winning 3-0 in Luxembourg with goals from Michael Owen, Alan Shearer and Gareth Southgate.

England, who collected just one point from their first two qualifiers against Sweden and Bulgaria, failed to impress and will need to raise their game considerably when they play Poland in their next qualifier in March.

Owen netted the first from a sharp angle after Jeff Strasser clumsily lost the ball in the 19 minute and Shearer converted the second from the penalty spot after Dany Theis handled in the area five minutes before the break.

But it took until injury time for Southgate to get the third as England were frustrated by the hosts' massed defence. Luxembourg missed the chance for a dream start when Theis blazed a penalty high over the bar in the sixth minute after goalkeeper David Seaman felled Marcel Christophe.

After a loss to Sweden and a dour home 0-0 tie with Bulgaria. Glenn Hoddle's team at least stays in contention for the finals and, although his players were again booed off the field by their own fans, his job is safe at least until March when England play again in group 5.

Sweden joined Poland on six points in Group 5 winning 1-0 at Bulgaria through Henrik Larsson's second half strike.

Beaten by Turkey on Saturday. Germany appeared headed for more trouble when they fell behind to Moldova after only six minutes at Kishinev.

But two goals by Ulf Kirsten and one by AC Milan's Oliver Bierhoff turned it into a 3-1 win but Eric Ribbech's team still has three points to make up on Turkey and Finland.

The Turks had a great chance to open up a big lead but were beaten 3-1 at home by Finland and both teams have six points.

France move up to second in Group 4 behind Ukraine, who have a maximum nine points from three games after beating Armenia 2-0. Russia tumbled to their third loss in a row, 1-0 in Iceland, and still don't have a

The Czechs triumphed 4-1 to stay top of Group 9 with a maximum nine points from three games. Latvia stayed top of Group 2 despite a 1-0 loss at Slovenia.

Greece moved up to second after a 3-0 victory over Georgia while Norway hit back to salvage a 2-2 tie after surprisingly falling two goals behind at home to Albania. After their upset loss to with two goals from 18-year-old striker Robbie Keane, who became the youngest Irish scorer since John Giles in 1959. There was a thrilling Group Eight match in Zagreb where Croatia beat Macedonia 3-2 thanks in part to two goals from Zvonimir Boban after 45 and 70 minutes. Macedonia had started the day in top place in the group, but fell back to third with Croatia moving up to second after winning two of their three opening games. And there was another good game in Cardiff, where Wales, who have been in the international doldrums for years, chalked up their second win in four days with a 3-2 comeback victory over Belarus.

That win lifted Wales level on points with group leaders Italy, who have one match in hand.

In the same group Ole Tobi-asen scored in the last minute as Denmark, the 1992 European champions, forced a 1-1 draw with Switzerland in Zurich.

Valdas Ivanauskas scored the only hattrick as Lithuania defeated Bosnia 4-2 in a Group Nine match in Vilnius.

Scotland, who are second and won for the second time in four days after beating Estonia on Saturday, were jeered by the Aberdeen crowd who felt let down by their team's performance in their 2-1 win over the Faroes Islands.

Meanwhile there was a memorable night for Liechten-

Soccer's shame

BEIJING, Oct 15 (Reuters/Internet): Two Chinese soccer coaches have been stripped of their licences on suspicion of match-fixing, the toughest punishment used since China launched a professional league in 1994. Xinhua news agency said on Thursday. The scandal comes after a national outcry over soccer corruption that prompted one Chinese company to drop its sponsorship of the country's top team. Chen Yiming, coach of Chongqing Hongyan and Wang Hongli, manager of Liaoning Tianrun, both had their licences revoked after their teams suffered humiliating losses at the hands of much weaker sides last weekend.

Hongyang were thrashed 4-0 by relegation-threatened Yunnan Hongta and Tlanrun went down 4-2 to Chengdu Wuniu.

Xinhua quoted Chinese Football Association (CFA) official Nan Yong as saying the results had "extremely nasty implications".
