DU hall canteen owner beaten up
By DU Correspondent

The owner of canteen at the Jasimuddin Hall of Dhaka University was beaten up allegedly by some BCL activists inside the hall premises on Friday, witnesses said.

According to sources, the owner, Alamgir Hossain, was beaten up as he refused to supply food to Bangabandhu Hall from Jasimuddin Hall. Alamgir Hossain was given treatment at the Dhaka Medical College Hospital (DMCH).

Meanwhile, Provost of the hall has formed a committee to investigate the incident. Action would be taken against the culprits as per rules of the university, he said.

Indian sarees worth Tk 5 lakh seized in city

Police seized 703 pieces of Indian saree worth about Tk five lakh from a microbus at Azampur in Uttara thana here on Friday late night, reports UNB.

Police, on suspicion, intercepted the microbus near Azampur Super Market at about 2 am and recovered the smuggled items from the vehicle.

Owner of the microbus managed to escape from the scene, but police caught driver Jahangir. A case has been filed with Uttara police.

CU reopens

CHITTAGONG, Oct 17: Chittagong University reopened today after a month-long autumn vacation, reports UNB.

Authorities took tight security measures as classes resumed in the morning amidst a siege programme of Islam Chhatra Shibir.

Shibir, however, withdrew its programme after a 'fruitful' meeting with the university authorities regarding its 10-point demand.

Two students have been killed in violence since August 27.
