Call to trace out clandestine radio centre

By Staff Correspondent
The Bangladesh Frequency and Wireless Board (BFWB) at an emergency meeting here Wednesday urged all concerned to start vigorous monitoring to trace out the clandestine transmission centre which is broadcasting a religious leader's speech.

It was reported in a section of the media that speeches of Jamaat-e-Islami leader Moulana Delwar Hossain Saidee is being received by FM band radio in some areas of the city for more than a month.

The meeting expressed concern over the illegal use of radio frequency by a clandestine transmission centre and asked all agencies concerned to try their best to trace it out, meeting sources said.

Representatives of Bangladesh Betar, Bangladesh Television, Bangladesh Army, Navy, National Security Intelligence (NSI), Defence Forces Intelligence (DFI), Police and Bangladesh Telegraph and Telephone Board (BTTB) attended the meeting.

PCJSS urged to accept CHT Regional Council

RANGAMATI, Oct 23: Minister for Chittagong Hill Tracts (CHT) Affairs Kalpa Ranjan Chakma today reiterated his appeal to the leaders of the Parbatya Chattagram Jana Sanghati Samity (PCJSS) to accept the recently formed CHT Regional Council for proper and smooth implementation of the remaining clauses of the peace accord, reports BSS.

In an exclusive interview with BSS at the local Circuit House, the minister said the government is sincere to the peace accord and it has implemented a good number of the clauses upholding its spirits. The speed of implementation is, of course, satisfactory in comparison to those signed in different countries of the world in the recent past, he added. "Come and cooperate with us to expedite implementation of the remaining clauses of the treaty," he urged the PCJSS leaders.

While detailing the clauses of peace treaty so far implemented, Kalpa Ranjan Chakma, an immediate and direct beneficiary of the CHT peace accord, told BSS that the government had formed a separate ministry under the name and style of Chittagong Hill Tracts Affairs Ministry and inducted myself to it. The government has also nominated an elected public representative from tribal

Lankan envoy calls on Nurul Islam

Sir Lanka High Commissioner to Bangladesh E G Dayananda called on State Minister for Religious Affairs Maulana Nurul Islam at his secretariat office on Thursday, reports BSS.

They discussed matters of mutual interest, said a PID handout. Dayananda, on behalf of his government, invited Islam to attend the four-day national Buddhist conference to be held in Colombo from November 9 to 12.

Interested persons have been requested to contact M R Mahbab, president, BGSS, at 72, Zikatala, Dhanmondi by October 30 for further information regarding the publication, says a press release.

PWA meenabazar at Gulshan

A two-day meenabazar, organised by the Pakistan Women's Association (PWA) to raise funds for the flood victims, began at Gulshan in the city yesterday, reports APB.

The fair, being held at the residence of Pakistan High Commissioner to Bangladesh Karam Elahi, will remain open from 10 am to 5 pm today.

The High Commissioner's wife Farah Elahi, who is the president of the association, told APB that the profits from the fair would be handed over to the Prime Minister's Relief Fund.

The association of wives of Pakistani diplomats in Dhaka has already donated Taka one lakh to the PM's Relief Fund for the flood-hit people, Farah Elahi said. She told that the association arranges such fairs every year to help various charitable organisations here.

Traditional Pakistani products — pottery, caps, ladies' shawls, garment, handicrafts and embroideries — have been put on display for sale.
