300 telephones out of order

About 300 telephones went out of order in Shyampur, Jura-in and Postagola areas under Central Telephone Exchange due to faults in cables, reports UNB.

The repair work of the cables got underway and the telephones will be restored after completion of the work, said a BTTB press release yesterday.

Bangladesh army members start returning from Kuwait

The 500-member infantry security battalion of the Bangladesh Army started returning home after successful completion of its two-year long mission in Kuwait, reports BSS.

A new contingent of 474 army officers and troops led by Lieutenant Colonel Muzaffar Ahmed, Bir Bikram will replace them, an ISPR press release said.

The first batch of the new contingent comprising 40 officers and troops left Dhaka for Kuwait yesterday.

Earlier, the first batch of 150 army personnel, including officers, returned home from Kuwait yesterday morning. The remaining members of the contingent are expected to be back home soon.

Bangladesh sent its first infantry security battalion in Kuwait following a memorandum of understanding (MOU) signed between the two countries on November 15, 1991.

BGMEA to sign project document with UNFPA today

BGMEA will sign a project document with UNFPA today for implementing a family welfare and reproductive health education and services programme for the workers of garment industries, reports UNB.

Bangladesh Garment Manufacturers and Exporters Association at a meeting of its board of directors yesterday decided to implement the programme with UNFPA financial assistance of US dollar 523,000, said a BGMEA press release.

The programme aims at providing reproductive health education to create awareness among the garment workers, opening a labour welfare centre at BGMEA office and establishing four mobile medical centres.
