Gram police forces to be strengthened: Zillur

LGRD and Cooperatives Minister Zillur Rahman yesterday said related laws of the Union Parishad will be amended for strengthening the Gram Police forces to maintain peace and law and order in the rural areas, reports UNB.

He said this while talking to a 40-member delegation of Bangladesh Gram Police Karmochari Union who called on him at his Secretariat office in the city.

Chairman of Bangladesh Gram Police Karmochari Union A H M Raieed and Secretary General M A Allim led the delegation.

The delegation leaders handed over a memorandum to the LGRD Minister demanding necessary arrangement to provide 50 per cent of their salaries and allowances from the respective TNO offices instead of Union Parishads, establishment of Gram Police headquarters in Dhaka, training facilities and salary scale like UP secretaries with 50 months' gratuity.

The LGRD Minister directed the authorities concerned to provide all possible help including providing warm clothes for all members of the Gram Police forces in the coming winter season.

Meanwhile, about 42 thousand members of the Gram Police force are working in the villages under the supervision of Union Parishad to maintain peace and law and order in the rural areas.

Representatives of the Gram Police forces from different district headquarters and thanas were present on the occasion.
