One Stop Mall opens in city

A galaxy of world-class brand items showcased in the city's maiden One Stop Mall is now open for sale with guarantees of product quality, reports APB.

"Such efforts will save the country's foreign currency and play a positive role in the national economy," said Commerce and Industries Minister Tofael Ahmed at the inauguration of the OSM at Banani's Iqbal Centre in the city.

Tofael, who went round the Mall, said the affluent people who usually buy items from abroad in dollars now can avail something from here with local currency.

FBCCI president Abdul Awal Mintoo, BGMEA president Mostafa Golam Qudus and H B M Iqbal MP were also present.

World-class cosmetics and other luxury items of Mothercare, Marks and Spencer, Lavin, Giorgio Armani, Carrera, Lindt, Davidoff, Calvin Klein, Elizabeth Arden and Body Shop with price tags are on sale in the shopping mall.

Chairman of the company M Nurul Amin said they have a plan to open two or three OSM outlets in the city's posh areas if this venture goes well.

"Business is not our prime target rather we want to create employment opportunities," he said, adding that interested university students can work here as part-timers.

As the mall opened, a considerable number of local and foreign customers, mostly women, visited the centre and bought some items of their choice.

The OSM will remain open everyday except Fridays.

'Communal harmony must for economic development'

Speaker Humayun Rasheed Chowdhury yesterday underscored the need for building a happy and prosperous society through collective efforts of the members of all religions living in the country, reports BSS.

"We should have to strengthen communal harmony for socio-economic development of the country," he said while speaking as the chief guest at the grand conference of the Bangladesh Buddhist community.

Bangladesh Buddhist Federation organised the conference at the International Buddhists Monastery in the city in observance of 'Kathin Chibar Dan', one of the greater religious festivals of the community.

State Minister for Religious Affairs Maulana Nurul Islam, Rajuk chairman Azizur Rahman, utjapan committee president D P Barua and general secretary Dr Sukamal Barua, among others, addressed the conference.

The Speaker said Bangladesh is the land of communal harmony where followers of all religions can perform their religious activities freely. "The Constitution of Bangladesh has given the rights in this regard," he said.

He said the essence of Gautam Buddha's preaching was non-violence, which is very significant in present day world too for establishing the global peace.

10-AL activists hurt in BNP attack : 5 held in Netrakona

NETRAKONA, Oct 30: Two local Awami League leaders and eight activists of the party were injured in an attack by the BNP supporters in Apara thana on Thursday, reports APB.

Of the injured, former AL vice-president of Apara thana unit Mozammel Haque was admitted to the local health complex while Banijan UP AL secretary Jaaj Mia to the Netrakona Sadar Hospital.

Police arrested five BNP activists - Nurul Haque Talukder Shanto, Idris Master, Sazzad Hossain, Tutul and Swapan - in this connection.

According to police, the BNP men launched the attack following "objectionable" slogans chanted by the AL workers outside the thana council auditorium Wednesday while a meeting of the Thana Unnayan Samannoy Committee was progressing in the presence of local MP Nurul Amin Talukder.

4 dev projects taken up in Tangail

TANGAIL, Oct 30: Tangail Zila Parishad has taken up four developmental projects at a total cost of Taka twenty-four lakh twenty-four thousand and five hundred in this fiscal year, reports BSS.

Official sources said, under this programme a monument will be built at Baharatail in memory of the shahids of the liberation war, Tangail Bhasani Hall will be renovated, gate of Shishu Academy will be constructed and hall room of the Zila Parishad will be repaired.

The work will be completed within two months time.

Kathin Chibar Dan begins in Rangamati

RANGAMATI, Oct 30: Kathin Chibar Dan, one of the greatest religious festivals of the Buddhist community, began here today at the local Raz Bonobihar Monastery with due religious fervour, reports BSS.

Chief of Rangamati-based Chakma circle King Devashish Roy formally inaugurated the ceremony of the festival.

Barrister Devashish said this year's celebration of the festival is very significant as it is taking place in a peaceful atmosphere following the signing of the CHT peace agreement.

He urged all to work unitedly for the peace and development of the region and the nation.

Earlier in the morning, Minister for Chittagong Hill Tracts Affairs Kalpa Ranjan Chakma donated a computer to Rangamati Raz Bonobihar.

Team of European Parliament visits Geneva Camp

The visiting European Parliamentary delegation led by Anita Jean Pollack visited Geneva Camp of stranded Pakistanis in the city yesterday, reports UNB.

In the last leg of their programme in Bangladesh, the European Parliamentary delegation visited the camp to express sympathy and solidarity with the issues of the stranded Pakistanis and assured to appraise the European Parliament for immediate resolution of the issues.

The delegation also went round the Geneva Camp to see sanitary condition, water supply facilities and the living condition of the stranded Pakistanis, said a press release.

Govt urged to ban communal politics

By Staff Correspondent

Bangladesh Hindu Bouddha Christian Oikya Parishad (BHBKOP) yesterday urged the government to ban communal politics and ensure trial of those responsible for communal violence in the past.

Addressing a rally at the central Shaheed Minar yesterday, the Parishad leaders demanded repeal of the vested Property Act, elimination of all kinds of discrimination against the minorities and restoration of the constitution of 1972, says a press release.

The rally was organised to mark the "Day of Disgrace" commemorating attacks on the minorities on this day in 1990.
