Land dispute
1 killed, 2 hurt in Rajshahi
 RAJSHAHI, Oct 31: A youth was killed and two others injured in an armed attack over a land-dispute in Godagari thana of the district Thursday, reports APB.
 Police said, Shamim, 24 of Balla in the town, died instantaneously while Tuhin and Hossain of the same area received serious injuries.
 Three armed miscreants waylaid Shamim and two of his friends at Bhalpora village in Godagari thana in the afternoon and opened fire on them. Shamim had gone there to supervise their landed property, locals said.
 Tuhin and Hossain was admitted at the Rajshahi Medical College Hospital.

Body to monitor supply of text books
 The National Curriculum and Text Book Board (NCTB) has constituted a 30-member monitoring committee to ensure adequate and timely supply of text books for primary schools, 1999 academic year, official sources said, reports BSS.
 "All publishers concerned were directed to complete their printing, binding and distribution work within stipulated time," they said.
 "The text book distribution system has been decentralised and the distributors will supply the book directly to different districts," they added.
 NCTB sources informed that apart from the regular monitoring work of the board, the Primary Education Directorate is also monitoring the situation.

Two killed in separate incidents
 Two people were killed in separate incidents in the city yesterday, medical sources said, reports UNB.
 Abul Kalam, 48, a security guard of Sylhet Gas Field at 11/A, Dhanmondi, died at the DMCH at about 9.30 am. He was believed to be poisoned.
 Mominuddin, 35, an employee of Bangladesh Air Force, was killed when a tempo knocked down his bicycle at the rail-gate near Zia Colony in Cantonment area.
