Upazila Law to be enacted in coming JS session: Zillur

LGRD and Cooperatives Minister Zillur Rahman yesterday said Upazila Law will be enacted in the forthcoming session of the Parliament, reports

He was inaugurating a two-day workshop on "Building Capacity for Local Governance" at the auditorium of the Bangladesh Institute of Administration and Management (BIAM) in the morning.

The minister informed that a five-year project, involving Tk 50 crore, has been undertaken with the assistance of UNDP for strengthening the Local Government system and enhancing the capacity of Local Government bodies through imparting training to the elected representatives.

Some 60,070 elected chairmen, commissioners and members of different tiers of the Local Government bodies will be imparted training under the project. The National Institute of Local Government (NILG) and Bangladesh Institute of Administration and Management (BIAM) will jointly implement the project.

Zillur Rahman said the new Upazila system will be more powerful than the previous one and all departments and directorates involved in development activities will be handed over under the elected Upazila Parishad.

The minister said the government, for the first time, is going to undertake revolutionary steps to introduce Gram Parishad Act and Upazila system under four-tier Local Government System.

He said the provision of direct election of the one third women members in the UP and

Austerity drive: Police Week to be of 4 days

By Staff Correspondent

As a measure of austerity, the Police Week scheduled to begin on February 28, has been reduced to four days from seven days in view of the devastation of recent flood, said a police press release yesterday.

The decision was taken at a meeting held at the police headquarters yesterday with the IG of Police, AYBI Siddiquee, in the chair.

"The department will save a few lakh taka from this austerity drive," a source said. The meeting also decided to change the name of the 'Police

Week' as 'Police Gathering'.

Special police parade will be held to mark the gathering. Besides, the decision on promotion of junior officers will also be completed by that time, the release added.
